Asian Financial Crisis 1997 Documentary:

Film in Contemporary Southeast Asia David C. L. Lim, Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2012-03-12 This book discusses contemporary film in all the main countries of Southeast Asia and the social practices and ideologies which films either represent or oppose. It shows how film acquires signification through cultural interpretation and how film also serves as a site of contestations between social and political agents seeking to promote challenge or erase certain meanings, messages or ideas from public circulation. A unique feature of the book is that it focuses as much on films as it does on the societies from which these films emerge; it considers the reasons for film makers taking the positions they take, the positions and counter positions taken, the response of different communities and the extent to which these interventions are connected to global flows of culture and capital. The wide range of subjects covered include documentaries as political interventions in Singapore, political film makers, collectives in the Philippines and films about prostitution in Cambodia and patriotism in Malaysia and the Chinese in Indonesia. The book analyses films from Burma, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia and the Philippines across a broad range of productions such as mainstream and independent features across genres, for example comedy, patriotic, political, historical, genres alongside documentary, classic and diasporic films. Chapter 7 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license.

Hong Kong Culture Kam Louie, 2010-06-01 Does Hong Kong culture still matter? This informative and interdisciplinary volume proves unmistakably so. It stands as an essential Hong Kong reader, a rich resource not only for those specialized in Hong Kong culture and history but also for students, teachers and researchers interested in cosmopolitanism, postcolonial conditions as well as cultural globalization. Laikwan Pang, The Chinese University of Hong Kong. A very timely, ambitious and fascinating book. The essays are based on solid research and full of theoretical or analytical insights illustrating the complexity of social and cultural life in Hong Kong. In addition to offering excellent essays on Hong Kong cinema, the book also surveys alternative performance art and documentary, which are undoubtedly the least researched aspects of Hong Kong's cultural scene. Law Wing Sang, Lingnan University, Hong Kong. As a world city, Hong Kong draws on a rich variety of foundational texts in film, fiction, architecture and other forms of visual culture. The city has been a cultural fault line for centuries, a translation space where Chinese-ness is interpreted for Westerners and Western-ness is translated for Chinese. Though constantly refreshed by its Chinese roots and global influences, this hub of Cantonese culture has flourished along cosmopolitan lines to build a modern, outward-looking character. Successfully managing this perpetual instability helps make Hong Kong a postmodern stepping stone city and helps make its citizens such prosperous and durable survivors in the modern world. This volume of essays engages many fields of cultural achievement. Several pieces discuss the tensions of English closely associated with a colonial past, yet undeniably the key to Hong Kong's future. Hong Kong provides a vital point of contact where cultures truly meet and a cosmopolitan traveler can

Economics Aida A. Hozic, Jacqui True, 2016 This book is about the neglect of gender and race in explanations of the Global Financial Crisis It is also about the sexual scandals and gendered austerity policies that have relegated public debate and the crisis itself We need to look at the activities and the privileges of the advantaged the TED women of the crisis as much as the victimization of the disadvantaged to fully grasp the interplay between gender and economy in this age of restoration

American Masculinities in Contemporary Documentary Film Sara Martín, 2023-05-24 Most documentaries deal with men but what do they actually say about masculinity In this groundbreaking volume Sara Mart n analyses more than forty 21st century documentaries to explore how they represent American men and masculinity From Jennifer Siebel Newsom s The Mask You Live In to Raoul Peck s I Am Not Your Negro this volume explores sixteen different faces of American masculinity the good man the activist the politician the whistleblower the criminal the sexual abuser the wrongly accused the dependent man the soldier the capitalist the adventurer the sportsman the architect the photographer the musician and the writer The collective portrait drawn by the documentaries discloses a firm critical stance against the contradictions inherent in patriarchy which makes American men promises of empowerment it cannot fulfill The filmmakers view of American masculinity emphasizes the vulnerability of disempowered men before the abuses of the patriarchal system run by hegemonic men and a loss of bearings about how to be a man after the impact of feminism accompanied nonetheless by a celebration of resilient masculinity and of the good American man Firmly positioning documentaries as an immensely flexible relevant tool to understand 21st century American men and masculinity their past present and future this book will interest students and scholars of film studies documentary film American cultural studies gender and masculinity Discourse, Politics and

reforms radical changes have occurred in all aspects of life in China In an authoritarian society these changes are mediated significantly through the power of language carefully controlled by the political elites Discourse as a way of speaking and doing things has become an indispensable instrument for the authority to manage a fluid increasingly fragmented but highly dynamic and yet fragile society Written by an international team of leading scholars this volume examines socio political transformations of contemporary Chinese society through a systematic account analysis and assessment of its salient discourses and their production circulation negotiation and consequences In particular the volume focuses on the interplay of politics and media The book s intended readership is academics and students of Chinese studies language and discourse and media and communication studies

Singapore Cinema Kai Khiun Liew, Stephen Teo, 2016-11-25 This book outlines and discusses the very wide range of cinema which is to be found in Singapore Although Singapore cinema is a relatively small industry and relatively new it has nevertheless made an impact and continues to develop in interesting ways The book shows that although Singapore cinema is often seen as part of diasporic Chinese cinema it is in fact much more than this with strong connections to Malay cinema and the cinemas of other Southeast Asian nations Moreover the themes and subjects covered by Singapore cinema are very wide ranging from conformity to the regime and Singapore s national outlook with undesirable subjects overlooked or erased to the sympathetic depiction of minorities and an outlook which is at odds with the official outlook The book will be useful to readers coming new to the subject and wanting a concise overview while at the same time the book puts forward many new research findings and much new thinking

Participation Without Democracy Garry Rodan, 2018-05-15 With an empirical focus on regimes in Singapore the Philippines and Malaysia the author examines the social forces that underpin the emergence of institutional experiments in democratic participation and representation
