As much as master roaster Clare Cosi adores coffee, the landmark shop she manages won't survive if she doesn't sell enough of it. So when the Village Blend's customer traffic grinds to a halt, she turns to her staff for creative ideas and the Writer's Block Lounge is born. Madame, the eccentric octogenarian owner of the shop, is upset by this news. Years ago a group of accomplished writers used the shop's second floor lounge to inspire each other, but the group disbanded when something dark occurred. Though that history is shrouded in mystery, Clare presses forward. Soon the Village Blend tables are filled with aspiring novelists, playwrights and poets, all happy to be coaxed, cajoled and caffeinated by her coffeehouse crew. Clare admires the stamina of these scribes, many of them toiling at night jobs driving taxis, tending bar, ushering for Broadway, while penning projects during the day. Then one of their fictions turns fatal when a shocking secret leads to a deadly end. Unless Clare can untangle this mystery, uncover the truth and stop a desperate killer, she fears more of these weary writers may be marked for eternal rest.
