The Men in the Walls William Tenn,2016-02-15 Mankind consisted of 128 people The sheer population pressure of so vast a horde had long ago filled over a dozen burrows Bands of the Male Society occupied the outermost four of these interconnected corridors and patrolled it with their full strength twenty three young adult males in the prime of courage and alertness They were stationed there to take the first shock of any danger to Mankind they and their band captains and the youthful initiates who served them Eric the Only was an initiate in this powerful force Today he was a student warrior a fetcher and a carrier for proven seasoned men But tomorrow tomorrow This was his birthday Tomorrow he would be sent forth to Steal for Mankind When he returned and have no fear Eric was swift Eric was clever he would return off might go the loose loin cloths of boyhood to be replaced by the tight loin straps of a proud Male Society warrior He would be free to raise his voice and express his opinions in the Councils of Mankind He could stare at the women whenever he liked for as

The First World War is a watershed in the intellectual and spiritual history of the modern world On the one hand it brought an end to a sense of optimism and decency bred by the prosperity of nineteenth century Europe On the other it brought forth a sense of futility and alienation that has since pervaded European thought That cataclysmic experience is richly reflected in the work of writers and artists from both sides of the conflict and this study provides a detailed analysis of two basic themes death and degradation that mark the literature about the war From their accounts most men entered the war lightheartedly filled with ideals of patriotism and glory but these generous feelings were soon quelled as the war settled into a stalemate its operations reduced to simply grinding away the opposing forces In these operations Alfredo Bonadeo shows men became mere aggregations thrown against one another wasted with no appreciable effects or gains save carnage itself This cheapening and disregard for human life and being Bonadeo finds rooted not only in the conditions of war but significantly in a contempt for the common man prevailing in European political and intellectual circles This attitude is revealed most plainly in his analysis of the Italian literature which hitherto has received little note Italian leaders saw the war as an opportunity to expiate a sense of national guilt and here the inconclusive campaigns made their futility all the greater Out of the torn fields of the First World War grew the seeds of a second greater conflict but Professor Bonadeo concludes the flowering of the seeds was aided by the degradation of man s spirit on those fields The grim focus of this book the dead voices it evokes leads to a new appreciation of the meaning of the Great War impossible to be defeated by procrastination if the individual possesses the trio empathy sense of purpose and tenacity Which one of them is the most effective in overcoming procrastination Dr Morales analyzes the consequence of being empathetic from the executor s and the recipient s standpoints Is it possible to be simultaneously empathetic but neither tenacious nor lacking sense of purpose Which was the most convincing proof of Gladys Morales immense empathy Can the combination of the trio empathy sense of purpose tenacity be powerful enough to allow a person not to grieve after his her most loved one s decease
