Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2005 The Realities of Adaptive Groundwater Management William Blomquist, 2021-03-01 This book has three primary objectives The first objective is to provide scholars with a more realistic view of adaptive management without arguing against adaptive management Adaptive management is necessary as well as desirable but it is not easy and demonstrating that through the Chino Basin experience is an important goal The second objective is to provide practitioners with encouraging yet cautionary lessons about the challenges and benefits of an adaptive approach in similar fashion as the first objective the goal here is to endorse the adaptive approach but in a clear eyed manner that clarifies how hard it is and how much it requires A third objective is to show all audiences that resource governance systems can fail change and succeed There is no such thing as an ideal institutional design that is guaranteed to work rather making institutional arrangements work entails learning and adjustment when they begin to show problems as they inevitably will Authorization for Use of Military Force After Iraq and Afghanistan United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 2014 Hearing on National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2013 and Oversight of Previously Authorized Programs Before the Committee on Armed Services, House of Representatives, One Hundred Twelfth Congress, Second Session United States. Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents, 1993-12 Toward a World-class Passenger Rail System in California California. Legislature. Senate. Committee on Transportation and Housing, 2014 The Struggle for the People's King Hajar Yazdiha, 2023-05-30 How the misuses of Martin Luther King's legacy divide us and undermine democracy In the post civil rights era wide ranging groups have made civil rights claims that echo those made by Black civil rights activists of the 1960s from people with disabilities to women's rights activists and LGBTQ coalitions Increasingly since the 1980s white right wing social movements from family values coalitions to the alt right now claim the collective memory of civil rights to portray themselves as the newly oppressed minorities The Struggle for the People's King reveals how as these powerful groups remake collective memory toward competing political ends they generate offshoots of remembrance that distort history and threaten the very foundations of multicultural democracy In the revisionist memories of white conservatives gun rights activists are the new Rosa Parks antiabortion activists are freedom riders and antigay groups are the defenders of Martin Luther King's Christian vision Drawing on a wealth of evidence ranging from newspaper articles and organizational documents to television transcripts press releases and focus groups Hajar Yazdiha documents the consequential reimaging of the civil rights movement in American political culture from 1980 to today She shows how the public memory of King and civil rights has transformed into a vacated sanitized collective memory that evades social reality and perpetuates racial inequality Powerful and persuasive The Struggle for the People's King demonstrates that these oppositional uses of memory fracture our collective understanding of who we are how we got here and where we go next

The Devil's Fruit Dvera I. Saxton,2021-02-12 The Devil's Fruit describes the facets of the strawberry industry as a harm industry and explores author Dvera Saxton's activist ethnographic work with farmworkers in response to health and environmental injustices. She argues that dealing with devilish, as in deadly, depressing, disabling, and toxic problems requires intersecting ecosocial, emotional, ethnographic, and activist labors. Through her work as an activist medical anthropologist, she found the caring labors of engaged ethnography take on many forms that go in many different directions. Through chapters that examine farmworkers' embodiment of toxic pesticides and social and workplace relationships, Saxton critically and reflexively describes and analyzes the ways that engaged and activist ethnographic methods, frameworks, and ethics aligned and conflicted and in various ways helped support still ongoing struggles for farmworker health and environmental justice in California. These are problems shared by other agricultural communities in the U.S. and throughout the world.
