The Joy of Children's Literature Denise Johnson, 2023-12-18 This book provides in-depth coverage of children's literature with integrated reading methods in a concise, accessible format. Johnson emphasizes that reading, writing, discussing, and finding pleasure in children's books are essential tools in being able to recognize and recommend literature and being able to share the joy of children's literature with children themselves. This fully updated third edition includes up-to-date research, new book titles within each chapter, a greater focus on diversity and inclusion, and new sections on Activities for Professional Development and Print and Online Resources.

Conferring with Young Writers Kristin Ackerman, Jennifer McDonough, 2023-10-10 If you've ever sat down to confer with a child and felt at a loss for what to say or how to help move him or her forward as a writer, this book is for you. If you are a strong teacher of writing but are not seeing results from your students, this book is for you. Authors Kristin Ackerman and Jennifer McDonough have been teaching writing for several years and know that conferring can be a murky and messy process, perhaps the hardest component of all. Written from the lessons they've learned through hard-won classroom experience, their mistakes and challenges, Conferring with Young Writers is based on what Kristin and Jen call the three Fs: frequency, focus, and follow-up. They've created a classroom management system that offers routine and structure for giving the most effective feedback in a writing conference. This book will help writing teachers and students learn to break down and utilize the qualities that enable good writing: elaboration, voice, structure, conventions, and focus. The authors also provide the knowledge and skills it takes to confer well which will help you improve as a writing teacher and give your students the confidence to think of themselves as writers Write This Way from the Start Kelly Boswell, 2017-09-29 As teachers the beginning of each school year presents us with fresh starts and opportunities How will we build community and create a culture that values thinking learning and risk taking How can we create a safe environment where all learners feel welcome and valued As writing teachers it is of utmost importance that we launch our students into the world of writing in a way that engages them and helps to build their confidence In this book Kelly Boswell shares a variety of ways to kick start the school year and invite students to engage in meaningful purposeful and joyful writing experiences
