20zimsec Economics Paper 3:

The European Union and Global Development S. Gänzle, S. Grimm, D. Makhan, 2012-04-17 An assessment of the capacity of the EU to coordinate actors and policies with regards to global development The authors argue that the EU and its member states have the potential to act for global development when they are able to improve policy and actor coherence such as through better linking of bilateral and community programmes Realizing Livelihood and Environmental Benefits of Forages in Tropical Crop-Tree-Livestock Systems Michael Peters, Ngonidzashe Chirinda, Stefan Burkart, An Notenbaert, Rein Van Der Hoek, 2022-11-25 Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa's population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic and political change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of declining urban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author's longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the re-invention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King's College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985 Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Namibia and Zimbabwe University of Cape Town Press PB Digital Public Relations and Marketing Communication Trends in Africa Anne W. Njathi, Brandi Watkins, 2024-06-07 The uptake of digital media platforms necessitates the need to understand how digital cultures of consumers and brands are unfolding Despite the increase in usage and adoption of the internet in Africa there is limited information about digital marketing trends on the continent This book is among the first to present an edited collection of chapters on digital and influencer marketing authored by many who are either from or have close ties to Africa This book showcases digital marketing trends in Africa that are burgeoning at the same speed as the uptake of technology in the continent With this in mind the contributors seek to interrogate digital marketing trends in two stages the status of digital marketing on the African continent including cases from Nigeria Egypt

Uganda and Kenya and an analysis of the rise of influencer marketing including cases from Nigeria and Uganda This book will explore factors driving the increase in digital media platforms in Africa as well as an analysis of the implications of the growth in digital marketing using various theoretical and methodological underpinnings to probe trends Digital Public Relations and Marketing Communication Trends in Africa provides significant implications for marketing scholars and researchers and will be relevant to those looking to understand the opportunities and challenges ahead

Region-Building in Southern Africa Chris Saunders, Gwinyayi Albert Dzinesa, Dawn Nagar, 2013-07-04 How successful have Southern African states been in dealing with the major issues that have faced the region in recent years What could be done to produce more cohesive and effective region building in Southern Africa In this original and wide ranging volume which draws on an interdisciplinary team of mainly African and African based specialists the key political socio economic and security challenges facing Southern Africa today are addressed These include the various issues confronting the Southern African Development Community SADC and its institutions such as HIV AIDS migration and xenophobia land grabbing and climate change and the role of the main external actors involved with the region including the United Nations the European Union the United States and China The book also looks at the Southern African Customs Union and Southern African Development Finance Institutions including the Development Bank of Southern Africa and Industrial Development Corporation and issues of gender and peacebuilding In doing so the book goes to the heart of analyzing the effectiveness of SADC and other regional organisation suggesting how region building in Southern Africa may be compared with similar attempts elsewhere in Africa and other parts of the world

Beyond the Enclave Godfrey Kanyenze, 2011 Beyond the Enclave sets out to unravel the contradiction of a country Zimbabwe where a rich diverse resource base co exists with endemic poverty One reason lies in the colonial economy which was predicated on an ideology of white supremacy creating an enclave formal economy employing one fifth of the labour force Yet over three decades after independence the non formal segment has become even more entrenched This book assesses Zimbabwe s economy through three main phases 1980 0 when a strong social policy framework proved difficult to sustain due to erratic growth and 1991 6 when structural adjustment demanded a market driven approach to development The third phase is characterized by crisis management leading to policy inconsistencies and reversals Not surprisingly such incoherence saw the economy descend into hyperinflation and paralysis in 2007 8 leading to the signing of the Global Political Agreement in September 2008 In the absence of formal dollarization economic recovery after the adoption of the multi currency regime has remained fragile leaving an estimated 70 per cent of the population outside the banking system This has further entrenched uneven enclave growth as the economy remains locked in a low income poverty trap There is a need to facilitate transition towards formality to promote decent jobs Furthermore a strategic developmental role for the state in the economy is now widely recognized as vital for development Beyond the Enclave argues for a new approach to development in Zimbabwe based on pro poor and inclusive strategies which will contribute to the well being of all of its citizens and wise stewardship of its resources It offers suggestions on policy formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation in all sectors designed to promote inclusive growth and humane development

Conflicts in the Middle East and Africa Moosa Elayah,Bakeel Alzandani,2024-03-21 This book explores the multifaceted dynamics between state and non state actors in public policy during and after conflict in the Middle East and Africa It offers case studies and policy relevant ideas for conflict affected areas to move forward in a more sustainable manner Following the Arab Spring revolutions civil wars have plagued the Middle East and North Africa region along with other countries in Africa The task of rebuilding peace and institutionalizing stability in conflict affected countries or fragile states emerging from conflict is a daunting uncertain and context specific task Yet focusing on understanding conflicts in the Middle East and Africa offers an important view of the role of non state actors during conflicts These regions feature the highest numbers of inter and intra state conflicts and the governments are more often contested than in the rest of the world The volume proposes different cases addressing the fundamental challenge of inclusion and cohesion of nonstate actors during conflicts By providing a comprehensive exploration of diverse perspectives it empowers readers to engage with the pressing issues facing these regions This is a useful resource for students and researchers in public policy and governance studies

development studies and NGOs and Middle East and African Studies Routledge Handbook of Resilient Urban Planning for Small and Medium-Sized Cities Seth Asare Okyere,Stephen Kofi Diko,Louis Kusi Frimpong,Matthew Abunyewah,Stephen Leonard Mensah,2025-11-04 Small and medium sized cities SMCs are becoming the new frontiers of global urban growth and population change Yet they are overlooked in the policy and scholarship discourses about urban futures particularly urban planning for resilient futures This handbook aims to increase attention to the resilience of SMCs and explore the unique challenges they face as well as provide practical recommendations for built environment practitioners to understand and respond to these challenges in global contexts Chapters cover a range of important topics on the different dimensions of urban resilience such as climate induced risks heat resilience planning access to urban infrastructure and services socio environmental inequities urban safety health resilience walkability and more Contributors discuss ways to enhance policy and planning efforts to address these challenges and advocate for the need to pay attention to SMCs when promoting urban resilience to avert the risks often manifested in large cities This handbook transcends disciplinary boundaries and expertise bringing together a diverse range of contributions from scholars and practitioners in over fifteen countries across Africa Asia North and South America Europe and Oceania to counter the apparent paucity of attention on SMCs in the global resilience agenda This handbook is essential for scholars and practitioners working in the built environment such as city and regional planning public policy public health environmental science architecture landscape architecture urban design spatial planning and geography Responsible Business and Sustainable Development David Mhlanga,Mufaro Dzingirai,2024-06-28

Responsible and sustainable business practices are becoming increasingly important in the information age as companies are realizing the need to address ethical and social issues associated with their operations In today s interconnected world businesses have access to vast amounts of data that can be used to improve their bottom line but can also pose significant risks to individuals and society At the same time responsible business practices have the capacity to positively impact international development goals such as poverty alleviation economic growth responsible consumption and health and social welfare This book presents a transdisciplinary framework for addressing the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda offering fresh perspectives from the Global South It provides an overview of the key challenges and opportunities associated with responsible business practices in the information age including the need to balance privacy and security concerns with data analytics and innovation It also highlights some of the best practices and initiatives such as stakeholder engagement transparency and accountability The book establishes the role of green leadership in promoting responsible production discusses the importance of measuring and reporting on sustainable innovation including the use of sustainability metrics and reporting frameworks Further it debates the importance of incorporating ethics and sustainability in strategic management practices It provides a comprehensive understanding of the integration of these values in organizational decision making By delving into the pressing matters that impact our world today the book generates a sense of urgency and awareness among its audience Its inclusive approach to exploring various perspectives and opinions invites readers to participate in a constructive dialogue broadening their understanding and deepening their empathy for different viewpoints

Digital Surveillance in Southern Africa Allen Munoriyarwa,Admire Mare,2023-01-01 This book critically examines the manifest and latent practices of surveillance in the southern African region using case studies from South Africa Zimbabwe Zambia Namibia Botswana and Mozambique The book demonstrates the growing role of super powers in the construction and normalization of the surveillance state It traces the digitization of surveillance practices to the rapid adoption of smart CCTV facial recognition technologies and EMSI catchers Through predictive policing mechanisms state security agencies have appropriated digital media technologies for sentiment analysis constant monitoring of digital footprints of security targets and even deploying cyber troops on popular social media platforms The authors argue that surveillance practices have thus been digitized with deleterious impact on the right to privacy peaceful assembly and freedom of expression in the region Furthermore they argue that specific laws and regulations governing surveillance practices in the region are lagging behind Finally the book demonstrates how digital surveillance have significantly infiltrated the political economic and social fabric of Southern Africa This book provides much needed systematic cutting edge research into the trends practices policies and geo political interests at the center of surveillance practices in the region providing a crucial link between human rights such as freedom of privacy and expression and political authoritarianism
