Digital English as a Lingua Franca Annarita Taronna, 2023-01-10 Today the Internet has become a prime venue for social interaction through online services where people share aspects of their daily lives talk about their interests with other like minded people and express their opinions without formality or constraint Against this background this book investigates the aesthetics of informal text based computer mediated communication CMC such as question and answer websites conceived of as a distinctive medium of communication based on cosmopolitan brand communities that share the same field of expertise and a common interest in a particular topic By adopting sentiment analysis in order to recognize the positive or negative semantic orientation of texts and their emotional style the book demonstrates that the aesthetics of such informal texts written using Digital English as a Lingua Franca DELF is influenced by how we associate emotions and opinions with certain linguistic aspects such as specific words or syntactic patterns and how we can classify linguistic expressions according to the type of opinion that they convey Vernacular Universals and Language Contacts Markku Filppula, Juhani

Klemola, Heli Paulasto, 2009-01-13 In this book contributors have been brought together to discuss the role of two major factors shaping the grammars of different varieties of English and of other languages all over the world so called vernacular universals and contact induced change Rather than assuming a general typological perspective the studies in this volume focus on putative universal vernacular features significant phonological or morpho syntactic parallels found in non standard varieties of English English based Creoles and also varieties of other languages all of which represent widely differing sociolinguistic and historical backgrounds These universals are then set against the other major explanatory factor contact induced change by which we understand both the possibility of dialect contact or dialect diffusion and language contact including superstratal substratal and adstratal influences
