Terrorist Groups and the New Tribalism Jeffrey Kaplan, 2010-02-25 The central focus of this book is a small but vitally important group of movements that constitute a distinct fifth wave of modern terrorism here called the New Tribalism. Terrorist Groups and the New Tribalism examines a collection of terrorist or insurgent movements whose similarity in tactics, strategic vision, and desire to radically reshape their worlds to conform with a Golden Age dream of perfection which is to be achieved through a genocidal or ethnic cleansing process to make way for the emergence of a new radically perfected tribal utopia in a single generation. These shared strategic and tactical factors allow them to be examined through a comparative lens as a distinct fifth wave of modern terrorism. Structured around the theoretical framework of David Rapoport's Four Waves thesis, the book examines anomalous movements that began within a distinct wave of international terrorism but following a crisis model has turned inwards toward radical localism, tribalism, and xenophobia. The text is divided between theory and in-depth case studies of the Ugandan Lord's Resistance Army and the Sudanese Janjaweed. It concludes with a design for further field work based research. This book will be of interest to students of Terrorism and Political Violence, Genocide, Conflict Studies, African politics, and Political Science in general. Jeffrey Kaplan is an Associate Professor of Religion and the Director of the Institute for the Study of Religion, Violence, and Memory at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. He is the author of 11 books on terrorism and political violence: Legal Intelligencer, 1864; The Phrenological Journal and Life Illustrated, 1870; Elements of Literature; Gordon W. Brown, 2001; the Mirror of Literary, Amusement, and Instruction, 1825; Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1855; Theatres Of Violence; Philip Dwyer, Lyndall Ryan, 2012-04-01. Massacres and mass killings have always marked if not shaped the history of the world and as such are subjects of increasing interest among historians. The premise underlying this collection is that massacres were an integral if not accepted part until quite recently of warfare and that they were often fundamental to the colonizing process in the early modern and modern worlds. Making a deliberate distinction between massacre and genocide, the editors call for an entirely separate and new subject under the rubric of Massacre Studies dealing with mass killings that are not genocidal in intent. This volume offers a reflection on the nature of mass killings and extreme violence across regions and across centuries and brings together a wide range of approaches and case studies.
