The Promise of Not-Knowing David E. Fredrickson, 2022-04-12 David E Fredrickson asks a key question for interpreters of the New Testament in the twenty first century Do established ways of reading the New Testament need to be challenged and new ones explored His answer is yes but he takes care not to dismiss readers experiences in the previous two millennia He values the readings of the past even as he contests the insights of scholars preachers monks nuns skeptics the devout the disinterested the keenly interested and all the rest who have tried to make sense of the earliest Christian writings Fredrickson does not want to give an impression of I know better than them But he goes on to say that strange as it sounds not knowing is actually the point of this book More than anything else not knowing is I believe the key to reading the New Testament in the twenty first century Fredrickson claims that the reduction of a text to its usefulness is something a deconstructive approach seeks to avoid That leads to readings in which practicality enjoys a privilege over mystery knowing wins out over not knowing and control triumphs over hope Ultimately his goal in this book is to give mystery hope and not knowing a chance For Fredrickson the experience of reading is more than coming to know something or receiving information and the more that he has in mind exists in the shock of encountering some other or something that is not easily assimilated to an already known world a familiar horizon or the repeatability of language What if reading the New Testament meant giving an unexpected other a chance to take place and to change the world you thought was an unchangeable given What if we thought of reading as a way of preparing for what postmodernism calls an event

Be Ye Holy; For I Am Holy! Chaplain Robert McCullar,2025-08-19 I was feeling both sad and happy for Chaplain McCullar for his relationships with his three fathers Sad because of his adoptive father never saying I love you Happy because he was saved and now has Almighty God as his Father Also happy because he found his biological father after sixty eight years and his father saying I love you son I absolutely agree that this world needs to repent from our wicked ways and turn to Jesus Christ as the Lord of our lives starting right here at home in the United States For all people to get right with God other people and ourselves I agree that we must say to those who have offended us I forgive you for and we must also say to those whom we have offended Please forgive me for We must confess those sins to God and forgive ourselves Only after being reconciled to others are we made right with God I loved the Keys to Living a Holy Life I plan on reading these frequently and with God s strength and guidance I will live by them
