All Art Is Political Writings On Performative Art:

All Art is Political Sarah Lowndes, 2014-04-05 Since the 1990s performative art has been increasingly accepted into the cultural mainstream becoming a familiar and popular feature of art galleries and museums as shown by the Tate Modern's recent Collecting the Performative project As art historian Roselee Goldberg notes The term performative used to describe the unmediated engagement of viewer and performer in art has also crossed over into architecture semiotics anthropology and gender studies But what is performative art What about its radical origins How does it remain politically engaged Writer curator and lecturer at the Glasgow School of Art Sarah Lowndes takes us through the world of performative art using five case studies spanning from the 1960s to the present day A series of essays and conversations All Art is Political explores the work of artist musicians Mayo Thompson and Keith Rowe Berlin based artist Thea Djordjadze Glasgow based Turner Prize winner Richard Wright American conceptual artist Susan Hiller and German Swiss artist and writer Dieter Roth What is a literature sausage How do you transform reading coffee grinds into contemporary art How do you incorporate live radio broadcasts into a musical performance What does it mean to draw attention to the marks accidentally left behind by previous uses of the exhibition space How do you bring out the latent brutality of Punch and Judy shows For the answers to these questions and many more indulge in the pages of All Art is Political REVIEWS An interesting and insightful collection of thoughts about the urgency of vision how audiences work together with artists to enact the bodily labour of seeing and understanding and how politics and the performative can be embedded in the material presence of art Dr FIONA BRADLEY DIRECTOR FRUITMARKET GALLERY In her observant close readings of artists practices and interviews with artists Sarah Lowndes shows how artists themselves have navigated this territory giving attention to the question of politics from the perspective both of theory and of the artwork itself MELISSA GRONLUND EDITOR AFTERALL The DIY Movement in Art, Music and Publishing Sarah Lowndes, 2016-04-20 This book considers the history of Do It Yourself art music and publishing demonstrating how DIY strategies have transitioned from being marginal to emergent to embedded Through secondary research observation and 30 original interviews each chapter analyses one of 15 creative cities San Francisco Los Angeles Dusseldorf New York London Manchester Cologne Washington DC Detroit Berlin Glasgow Olympia Washington Portland Oregon Moscow and Istanbul and assesses the contemporary situation in each in the post subcultural era of digital and internet technologies The book challenges existing subcultural histories by examining less well known scenes as well as exploring DIY best practices to trace a template of best approaches for sustainable independent locally owned creative enterprises Pattern and Chaos in Art, Science and Everyday Life Sarah Horton, Victoria Mitchell, 2023-12-13 This collection explores critical and visual practices through the lens of interactions and intersections between pattern and chaos The dynamic of the inter relationship between pattern and chaos is such as to challenge disciplinary boundaries critical frameworks and modes of understanding perception and communication often referencing the in between territory of art and science through experimentation and visual scrutiny A territory of pattern chaos or chaos pattern begins to unfold Drawing upon fields such as visual culture sociology physics neurobiology linguistics or critical theory for example contributors have experimented with pattern and or chaos related forms processes materials sounds and language or have reflected on the work of other artists scientists and scholars Diagrams tessellations dust knots mazes folds creases flux virus fire and flow are indicative of processes through which pattern and chaos are addressed The contributions are organized into clusters of subjects which reflect the interdisciplinary terrain through a robust yet also experimental arrangement These are Pattern Dynamics Morph Flux Mutate Decompose Recompose Virus Social Imaginary and Nothings in Particular Anthropology of Landscape Christopher Tilley, Kate Cameron-Daum, 2017-02-01 An Anthropology of Landscape tells the fascinating story of a heathland landscape in south west England and the way different individuals and groups engage with it Based on a long term anthropological study the book emphasises four individual themes embodied identities the landscape as a sensuous material form that is acted upon and in turn acts on people the landscape as contested and its relation to emotion The landscape is discussed in relation to these themes as both taskscape and leiscapescape and from the perspective of different user groups First those who manage the landscape and use it for work conservationists environmentalists archaeologists the Royal Marines and quarrying interests Second those who use it in their leisure time cyclists and horse riders model aircraft flyers walkers people who fish there and artists who are inspired by it The book makes an innovative contribution to landscape studies and will appeal to all those interested in nature conservation historic preservation the politics of nature the politics of identity and an anthropology of Britain Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford, 2012-06-28 An innovative study of the thought and writings of Jean Francois Lyotard in relation to contemporary art and in particular performance art Literature, Performance, and Somaesthetics Katarzyna Lisowska, Jarosław Woźniak, 2017-05-11 Literature Performance and Somaesthetics views textual and extra textual worlds as intimately connected as forming a continuum in fact The essays on literature philosophy and the arts gathered here derive their theoretical inspirations from two realms where embodiment and agency are particularly stressed namely from philosophical somaesthetics a discipline proposed by Richard Shusterman in 1999 and from performance studies remarkable for its current expansion In most general terms the point of convergence for somaesthetics and performativity is their stressing the agency of the embodied and sentient human self The contributors explore the question of agency in its various manifestations They examine the construction of literary characters with emphasis on the representation of their corporeality and affectivity They look into the problem of the formation of the literary canon as enacted rather than established and into literary history as retold rather than re written They also focus on the problems of literary reception considering it on the physical visceral level While showing keen interest in performance studies and somaesthetics the authors also bring in the expertise gained in their primary fields of research Hence the ideas explored in their essays are drawn from philosophy literary theory cultural studies psychology and hard science The essays here are concerned with a variety of generic forms epic literature lyrical poetry tragedy experimental novel thriller literary history theological treatise documentary flamenco and opera in order to outline the field in the humanities where literature philosophy and performance can meet and where literary studies can benefit from the approaches offered by performance studies and philosophical somaesthetics African Performance Arts and Political Acts Naomi Andre,Yolanda Covington-Ward,Jendele Hungbo,2021-10-28 African Performance Arts and Political Acts presents innovative formulations for how African performance and the arts shape the narratives of cultural history and politics This collection edited by Naomi Andr Yolanda Covington Ward and Jendele Hungbo engages with a breadth of African countries and art forms bringing together speech hip hop religious healing and gesture theater and social justice opera radio announcements protest songs and migrant workers dances The spaces include village communities city landscapes prisons urban hostels Township theaters opera houses and broadcasts through the airwaves on television and radio as well as in cyberspace Essays focus on case studies from Cameroon the Democratic Republic of the Congo Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Tanzania The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1891 Afromodernisms Fionnghuala Sweeney,2013-02-06 Makes a persuasive case for a black Atlantic literary renaissance and by interrogating blackness as an aesthetic and political category at critical moments during the twentieth century This is the first book length publication to explore the term Afromodernisms and the first study to address together the cognate fields of modernism and the black Atlantic The Ends of Performance Peggy Phelan,Jill Lane,1998 Featuring work by leading theorists excursions into performative writing and texts by performance artists The Ends of Performance illuminates the provocative intellectual ends which motivate these varied approaches to performing writing and to writing performance
