xi their dead with ceremony were less intelligent than the Ancient Egyptians who adopted the custom of mummification or the Homeric heroes who practised cremation we have no justification for assuming At the very dawn of British history which begins when the earliest representatives of Modern Man reached our native land the influences of cultures which had origin in distant areas of human activity came drifting northward to leave an impress which does not appear to be yet wholly obliterated We are the heirs of the Ages in a profounder sense than has hitherto been supposed Ancient Man in Britain Donald A.
