Tick, tock, tick, tock! Some stories are like that. Once you've wound them up, nothing will stop them . . .

A tormented apprentice clock-maker, a deadly mechanical knight in armour – and the sinister Dr Kalmenius, who some say is the devil . . . Wind up these characters, fit them into a story on a cold winter's evening, with the snow swirling down, and suddenly life and the story begin to merge in a peculiarly macabre – and unstoppable – way.

Almost like clockwork . . .

'Can fairly be compared to the great gothic fantasies of the greatly missed Leon Garfield . . . For those who might want to read spooky stories this winter in front of a flickering fire, this story could hardly be better' Independent

'Deeply satisfying and deserves to become a classic' TES
