No Place Like Home Jerri Garretson, 2023-08-21 Jerri Garretson lived a total of 33 years in Manhattan Kansas in three periods This book features 55 topics about life in the years she was growing up there plus 13 mini biographies of teachers and neighbors that were important in her life It is illustrated with over 800 photos of people places and events and even everyday objects most of us no longer use To assist readers unfamiliar with Manhattan she has included maps and to anchor local events to the nation and the world there is a timeline The book is thoroughly indexed Though many dates and events are mentioned it is not a history of the city but rather an entertaining account about the way of life in that time and place Please be aware that this is a 298 page heavily illustrated book in the same fixed format as the printed book As such it is a download of about large download of approximately 227 MB and will take much longer to download than a novel in flowing format that has no illustrations

No Place Like Home Amy C. Singleton, 1997-01-01 Explores the way that four major works of Russian literature Gogol's Dead Souls Goncharov's Oblomov Zamyatin's We and Bulgakov's The Master and Margarita define a cultural self for the Russian people Focusing on the deep cultural currents that pull Russian society in contradictory ways No Place Like Home also explores the writer's struggle to overcome these tensions through the creation of a literary utopia

No place like home Hesba Stretton, 2025-04-24 In No Place Like Home Hesba Stretton crafts a poignant narrative that explores themes of family belonging and social justice within the context of Victorian England The novel follows the journey of its protagonist as they grapple with the moral complexities of home life amid broader societal challenges Stretton's literary style is characterized by rich descriptive prose that vividly captures the emotional landscapes of her characters Drawing from the sociocultural milieu of her time Stretton seamlessly intertwines elements of sentimentality with a realistic depiction of domestic struggles creating a profound commentary on the human condition Hesba Stretton a notable writer of her era was deeply influenced by her own life experiences and the socio reform movements of the late 19th century As a pioneer female author her work often addressed themes of charity empathy and the intricacies of social dynamics Stretton's background in advocating for children's welfare informs her storytelling allowing her to craft relatable characters that resonate with the trials faced by the Victorian lower class This personal engagement with social issues makes No Place Like Home not only a compelling tale but also a reflection of Stretton's convictions This novel is highly recommended for readers seeking a heartfelt exploration of home and the bonds that shape us Stretton's insightful portrayal of familial love and societal duties invites readers to reflect on their own notions of home and the responsibilities we hold to one another No Place Like Home serves as a timeless reminder of the enduring power of compassion and the importance of finding comfort in the spaces we inhabit

There's No Place Like Home Jean Studebaker, 2011-06-29 In the 1950's and 60's Kansas farm life meant milking cows gathering eggs and butchering hogs and steers It meant raising a garden preparing meals from scratch sewing clothes and churning butter It meant living close to the earth It was a special time when children could wander the pastures and fields without fear and come home dirty after a day of hard play and harder work Farmers produced much of what they needed to live and were almost completely self sufficient Farm life was basic simple and sweet and family was the most important thing There s No Place Like Home is the story of a Kansas farm family It is the unique story of life in a different time and place before technology and automation changed how things are done on the farm It was a time when a farm life was a family project and everyone contributed A collection of anecdotes and oral histories this story includes the tales of a childhood on a Kansas farm in the mid 20th century and the joys and regrets for generations of such a life It is the story of a life on the Kansas prairie a celebration of the land and people of Kansas and a re telling of the histories of one family recounted around the kitchen table It tells of the struggles hopes and disappointments of life in a simpler time and place

No Place Like Home Todd Stone,2005-03 It s tough to solve a dead cop s murder when there s no hard evidence it s tougher still when the cops don t want to believe the crime ever happened It gets even more difficult when small town politicians fight scorched earth turf wars and when a high priced well connected crime consultant sets you up to take the rap for not only that crime but a half dozen other homicides as well even a former FBI profiler and black Ops agent can find himself backed into a deadly corner When a respected cop is found naked and dead in a sleazy motel emotionally battered FBI profiler turned reluctant PI Jonathan Kraag sets out to clear the dead man s reputation The trail leads Kraag to homicide cases hot and cold and behind wholesome fa ades to the dark seamy underside of suburban life Scorned by infighting local politicians hunted by local law enforcement and with no tangible evidence to support his claims Kraag risks his life and fragile sanity as he pits his deductive skills against a vicious manipulative killer who seems to hold all the trump cards and to have a hold on his heart

No Place Like Home Mary Higgins Clark, 2011-11-29 Liza Barclay aged 10 shot her mother while trying to protect her from her violent stepfather ex FBI agent Charley Foster Despite her stepfather's claim that it was a deliberate act the Juvenile Court ruled the death an accident Many people however agreed with Foster and tabloids compared Liza to the infamous murderess Lizzie Borden pointing even to the similarity in name Growing up with adoptive parents who tried to erase every trace of her past her name is changed to Celia Always though the fear hung over her and the family that someday her vengeful stepfather would reappear to harm her Aged 25 a successful interior designer she marries a childless sixty year old widower and they have a son Before their marriage she had confided her earlier life to her husband Two years on on his deathbed he tells her that he would want her to re marry but makes her swear never to reveal her past to anyone so that their son would not carry the burden of this family tragedy a promise that plunges her into a new cycle of violence Three years later happily re married Celia is shocked when her second husband presents her with a gift the house where she killed her mother When the real estate agent who has made the sale recognises her and soon after is murdered Celia is accused of the crime Once again she is home the place where she is stamped as a murderess

No Place Like Home Brian J. McCabe, 2016 In No Place Like Home Brian McCabe challenges the ideology of homeownership as a tool for building stronger communities and crafting better citizens McCabe argues that homeowners often engage in their communities as a way to protect their property values and this participation leads to the politics of exclusion

No Place Like Home Margaret Watson, 2017-10-02 Running away is what Bree McInnes does best So when the single mother returns to Spruce Lake to help clean out her father's house she plans on getting the job done and getting out again before anyone in the small town ferrets out her secrets Her plans are complicated however when she falls for her boss a celebrity orchid hunter at the local college Bree is appalled by her attraction to Parker Ellison but she's having a hard time resisting him And her defenses are demolished by Parker's kindness to her son Charlie Between rebuilding her relationship with her sisters and taking care of Charlie Bree doesn't have time for a relationship Which is fine with Parker because he's not interested in long term But could home and family be exactly what the world traveling celebrity needs

No Place Like Home C.J. Janovy, 2018-01-15 Far from the coastal centers of culture and politics Kansas stands at the very center of American stereotypes about red states In the American imagination it is a place LGBT people leave No Place Like Home is about why they stay The book tells the epic story of how a few disorganized and politically naïve Kansans realizing they were unfairly under attack rolled up their sleeves went looking for fights and ended up making friends in one of the country's most hostile states. The LGBT civil rights movement's history in California and in big cities such as New York and Washington DC has been well documented. But what is it like for LGBT activists in a place like Kansas where they face much stiffer headwinds? How do they win hearts and minds in the shadow of the Westboro Baptist Church Christian motto "God Hates Fags"? Traveling the state in search of answers from city to suburb to farm, journalist C J Janovy encounters LGBT activists who have fought in ways big and small for the acceptance and respect of their neighbors, their communities, and their government. Her book tells the story of these twenty-first century citizen activists, the issues that unite them, the actions they take, and the personal and larger consequences of their efforts, however successful they might be. With its close-up view of the lives and work behind LGBT activism in Kansas, No Place Like Home fills a prairie-sized gap in the narrative of civil rights in America. The book also looks forward as an inspiring guide for progressives concerned about the future of any vilified minority in an increasingly polarized nation.

No Place Like Home and Dream a Little Dream Debra Clopton, 2013-10

Dream a little dream. When local newspaper reporter Molly Popp touts the marriage worthiness of local rancher Bob Jacobs, would-be wives descend on his Mule Hollow ranch by the busload, causing quite a ruckus.

There's No Place Like Home Jane Lovering, 2023-01-10

Beautifully written and both heartbreaking and heartwarming, Jessica Redland Isabel Izzy to her friends has got nothing left to lose when she makes the bravest decision of her life. A month living under canvas on the Yorkshire Moors with five strangers wouldn't normally be her idea of a good time, even if there is prize money to be won at the end of it, but she's all out of options. Joining her in this wild goose chase, being filmed for a TV show, are farmer Seb whose marriage is creaking but who is desperate not to lose his family, Sheltered Ruth who needs an opportunity to show she can make her own decisions, Glamorous socialite Kanga who has been living a lie, American Junior who has his own secret that has led him there, and last but not least, mysterious and brooding Mac who Izzy can't help but be drawn to. As the fickleness of nature tests them all to their limits, this disparate group comes together to face the challenge. But when Izzy finally tells them the truth that has brought her out on the Moors, will that be the end of their adventure or the beginning of her future? Because what Izzy really needs is a place to call home and someone to share it with, could be even better. A heartwarming romance from bestselling author Jane Lovering, perfect for fans of Jessica Redland, Beth Moran, and Jo Barlett. Praise for Jane Lovering: A funny, warm-hearted read filled with characters you'll love. Matt Dunn: A heartwarming, entertaining, and uplifting book about the importance of human connection, self-acceptance, and making the most of any opportunities that come your way. I absolutely loved it and could not fault it. Reader Review: I love Jane Lovering's books, all the quirky, lovable characters she creates, and the situations she puts them in.
