The anniversary calendar, natal book, and universal mirror Anniversary calendar, 1832 Basic Checklist & Ideabook for Advertising, Marketing, Sales Executives, 1962 The Schoolboy's Book of Private Devotion, by A.D. Crake Augustine David Crake, 1885 Jewish Reading and Berks County Laurie Grobman, Jessica Didow, 2011 Reading and Berks County's first documented Jewish settlers Lyon Nathan Meyer Josephson and Israel Jacobs arrived in the 1750s. Another wave of Jewish immigrants mostly from Eastern Europe and Russia came in the late 1800s to escape the Russian army draft or persecution. Many of these early settlers' families still remain and their established synagogues and organizations are a vital part of the community. Reform Congregation Oheb Sholom, the oldest surviving synagogue, was founded in 1864. On October 18, 1945, the Jewish Community Center of Reading was completed and dedicated. The Jewish community is committed to improving the lives of everyone in the area by sharing their time, talents, expertise, and financial resources with the larger region. Anniversary Year Book Engineers' Club of St. Louis, 1953 Steal This Book (50th Anniversary Edition) Abbie Hoffman, 2021-09-14 Still Notorious Radical and Revolutionary 50 Years Later. A survival guide from one of the greatest creative organizers of the 20th century, now with a new foreword by co-conspirator Lisa Fithian. Throughout the 1960s and 70s, Abbie Hoffman crisscrossed the country, ferreting out alternative ways of getting by in America, some illegal and all radical. Causing scandals with its advice on how to survive, fight, and liberate in the prison that is America, Steal This Book is a revolutionary's manual to running a guerilla movement as well as getting free food, housing, transportation, medical care, and more. This anniversary edition gives a new generation an insider's view into the movements of the sixties and seventies. While many of the holes in the system that Abbie exposed have since been plugged, the spirit of revolution, the dedication to opposing injustice, and the passion of creative activism continue to inspire today. Advertising & Selling Magazine, 1921

"Ask the Man Who Owns One" Arthur W. Einstein, Jr., 2014-01-10 A major force in the American automobile scene through the 1950s, Packard made a mark on American advertising as well. The cars themselves seemed built for promotion: the red hexagon in the hubcap, the yoke grille, and the half-arrow belt line molding acted as a logo of sorts, setting a new standard in visual continuity and branding. The company's image became so firmly established in fact that Packard eventually ran advertisements which pictured the cars but purposely omitted the name, instead asking readers to guess what name it bears. This book traces Packard's advertising history from 1900 through 1958, based on original research that includes several first-hand interviews with the people who made it happen. Filled with reproductions of Packard ads, some in color, the book looks beyond the surface to examine how the advertisements reflect and interpret the company's management and business convictions, how they were influenced by business conditions and competitive pressure, and how they changed with the times. Billboard, 1953-05-16 In its 114th year, Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events, brand content, and data licensing platform. Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers
