www.routledge.com/books/details/9781138812444 Writing Anchors Jan Wells, Janine Reid, 2004 This comprehensive handbook shows teachers how to build a foundation for writing with effective lessons that are the key to powerful writing workshops. Writing Anchors demonstrates how to create a supportive classroom model, writing experiences, and create enthusiasm for writing among students. The practical lessons explore the major elements of writing with explicit strategies for teaching the major forms of writing: Informational writing (detailed descriptions of ways to take and organize notes, use text features, and create reports that have voice), Poetry, and personal writing (language choice, imagery using the senses, and finding the personal pulse of the writer). Narrative extends writing skills with lessons on story sequence, problem solving, and character development. The lessons form metacognitive anchors that build an understanding of the elements of powerful writing. Each lesson comes with an anchor cue card that prompts students to apply their growing understandings independently in writing workshops and in assessing their own writing. In addition, the book provides more than thirty effective tools that are ready to copy and use in the classroom: writing checklists, rubrics for assessment, graphic organizers, note-taking grids, semantic maps, story maps, tips for proofing, and student examples collected from grade 2-7 classrooms.

The Art of Paper Caroline Fowler, 2019-11-05 The untold story of how paper revolutionized art making during the Renaissance, exploring how it shaped broader concepts of authorship, memory, and the transmission of ideas over the course of three centuries. In the late medieval and Renaissance period, paper transformed society not only through its role in the invention of print but also in the way it influenced artistic production. The Art of Paper tells the history of this medium in the context of the artist's workshop from the thirteenth century when it was imported to Europe from Africa to the sixteenth century when European paper was exported to the colonies of New Spain. In this pathbreaking work, Caroline Fowler approaches the topic culturally rather than technically, deftly exploring the way paper shaped concepts of authorship, preservation, and the transmission of ideas during this period. This book both tells a transcultural history of paper from the Cairo Geniza to the Mesoamerican manuscript and examines how paper became Europeanized through the various mechanisms of the watermark, colonization, and the philosophy of John Locke. Ultimately, Fowler demonstrates how paper as refuse and rags transformed into white surface informed the works for which it was used, as well as artists thinking more broadly across the early modern world.

The Simple 6TM for Secondary Writers Kay Davidson, 2008 Teacher Inquiry Anthony Clarke, Gaalen Erickson, 2003-12-08 The research teachers carry out in their own professional practice and environment is increasingly recognised as highly relevant and valuable.
