Mapping Equity and Quality in Mathematics Education Bill Atweh,Mellony Graven,Walter Secada,Paola Valero,2011-01-06 Concerns about quality mathematics education are often posed in terms of the types of mathematics that are worthwhile and valuable for both the student and society in general and about how to best support students so that they can develop this mathematics Concerns about equity are about who is excluded from the opportunity to develop quality mathematics within our current practices and systems and about how to remove social barriers that systematically disadvantage those students This collection of chapters summarises our learning about the achievement of both equity and quality agendas in mathematics education and to move forward the debate on their importance for the field The Education System in Malawi World Bank,2010-02-25 The Education System in Malawi an Education Country Status Report CSR is a detailed analysis of the current status of the education sector in Malawi the results of which have been validated by the government of Malawi Its main purpose is to enable decision makers to orient national policy on the basis of a factual diagnosis of the overall education sector and to provide relevant analytical information for the dialogue between the government and development partners The analysis incorporates data and information from multiple sources such as school administrative surveys by the Ministry of Education household surveys and a tracer survey created especially for this study This CSR developed by a multi ministerial national team supported by UNESCO P le de Dakar the World Bank and GTZ specialists updates the previous one drawn up in 2003 and consists of eight chapters including a chapter on higher education The analysis provides key monitoring and evaluation inputs for the overall education sector particularly under the framework of the implementation of the National Education Sector Plan Education Basic Statistics, Malawi ,1997
