The following shows our Gender Pay Gap report for 2024, referencing the April 5th 2023 data in line with our statutory requirement

Costcutter's lower paid roles sit predominantly in our Stores. Male and female colleagues in these roles receive the same pay however there are more females represented in these populations.

This, along with leadership roles being predominantly occupied by males, has a continuing effect on our gender pay gap.

Our gender pay gap is in line with expectations following wider business restructure which saw some Head Office functions move to our Bestway Wholesale office. These functions encompassed a number of roles undertaken in Costcutter by female colleagues in the upper and upper middle quartiles therefore increasing the pay gap.
