

Types of Secondary Packaging

Club Packs

Stores like Walmart and Costco display products in club packaging which may have requirements for date and lot code visibility.

Gift Set Packaging

Custom packaging with various materials such as cello wrap, shredded paper in custom colors, inner boxes and labeling that set your products apart.

Clamshell Packaging

A one-piece container that opens on a hinge and comes together to close, can be made of various materials like plastic for see-through visibility, foam, or cardboard.

Point-of-Purchase (POP) Displays

Includes various packaging materials including club packs which are designed to increase brand awareness and provide a positive shopping experience.

Sample Packs

A type of packing that allows manufacturers to introduce new products or promote their product offering.

Variety Pack Packaging

A type of multi-packing that allows companies to showcase featured items in one complete package.

PPS has experience with all these common types of secondary packaging and works with you to develop custom packaging solutions. We hold our employees to a high standard of quality performance, investing in training and automated equipment to provide the packaging solutions you need to meet your deliveries and quality expectations.
