on Alexander the Great Ernst Badian,2012-03-12 Professor Ernst Badian 1925 2011 was one of the most influential Alexander historians of the twentieth century His first articles on the subject appeared in 1958 and he continued for a full fifty years to reshape scholarly perception of the reign of Alexander the Great A steady output of articles was reinforced by lectures and reviews in his own formidable style Badian's earliest work transformed understanding of aspects of the Roman Republic and he continued to work on that area throughout his career but his series of studies of Alexander the Great which he deliberately never summed up in a synoptic work demolished the hero of his predecessors such as Droysen and Tarn whom he regarded as starry eyed hero worshippers and created an Alexander on the model of a twentieth century tyrant The Alexander who was a ruthless killer of his rivals and those who disagreed with him a mass murderer in his conquests and perhaps even an incompetent imperialist has superseded the Alexander whose mission it was to bring Greek civilization to the ends of the earth These essays and articles provide a new layer in the interpretation of a figure who has not ceased to fascinate since his death in 323 BC Many of these articles were published in out of the way journals and conference volumes and are brought together here for the first time in a collection which will provide student and scholar with a view of the full range of Badian's work on Alexander Certain ephemeral pieces and all reviews except one have been excluded by the wish of the author The twenty seven articles included were all revised by the author before his death but there has been no other editorial intervention The volume also includes a portrait and an introduction by Eugene Borza surveying Badian's career and contribution No one who works on Alexander the Great can afford to be without this book
