Andersonville: A Story of Rebel Military Prisons (Complete) John McElroy, 2020-09-28 The fifth part of a century almost has sped with the flight of time since the outbreak of the Slaveholder s Rebellion against the United States The young men of to day were then babes in their cradles or if more than that too young to be appalled by the terror of the times Those now graduating from our schools of learning to be teachers of youth and leaders of public thought if they are ever prepared to teach the history of the war for the Union so as to render adequate honor to its martyrs and heroes and at the same time impress the obvious moral to be drawn from it must derive their knowledge from authors who can each one say of the thrilling story he is spared to tell All of which I saw and part of which I was The writer is honored with the privilege of introducing to the reader a volume written by an author who was an actor and a sufferer in the scenes he has so vividly and faithfully described and sent forth to the public by a publisher whose literary contributions in support of the loyal cause entitle him to the highest appreciation Both author and publisher have had an honorable and efficient part in the great struggle and are therefore worthy to hand down to the future a record of the perils encountered and the sufferings endured by patriotic soldiers in the prisons of the enemy The publisher at the beginning of the war entered with zeal and ardor upon the work of raising a company of men intending to lead them to the field Prevented from carrying out this design his energies were directed to a more effective service His famous Nasby Letters exposed the absurd and sophistical argumentations of rebels and their sympathisers in such broad attractive and admirable burlesque as to direct against them the loud long laughter of a world The unique and telling satire of these papers became a power and inspiration to our armies in the field and to their anxious friends at home more than equal to the might of whole battalions poured in upon the enemy An athlete in logic may lay an error writhing at his feet and after all it may recover to do great mischief But the sharp wit of the humorist drives it before the world s derision into shame and everlasting contempt These letters were read and shouted over gleefully at every camp fire in the Union Army and eagerly devoured by crowds of listeners when mails were opened at country post offices Other humorists were content when they simply amused the reader

but Nasby's jests were arguments they had a meaning they were suggested by the necessities and emergencies of the Nation's peril and written to support with all earnestness a most sacred cause The author when very young engaged in journalistic work until the drum of the recruiting officer called him to join the ranks of his country's defenders As the reader is told he was made a prisoner He took with him into the terrible prison enclosure not only a brave vigorous youthful spirit but invaluable habits of mind and thought for storing up the incidents and experiences of his prison life As a journalist he had acquired the habit of noticing and memorizing every striking or thrilling incident and the experiences of his prison life were adapted to enstamp themselves indelibly on both feeling and memory He speaks from personal experience and from the standpoint of tender and complete sympathy with those of his comrades who suffered more than he did himself Of his qualifications the writer of these introductory words need not speak The sketches themselves testify to his ability with such force that no commendation is required Andersonville a Story of Rebel Military Prisons John John

We held a little council among ourselves as to the meaning of this and concluded that some partial exchange had been agreed on and the Rebels were going to send back the class of boys whom they thought would be of least value to the Government. Acting on this conclusion the great majority of us enrolled ourselves as foreigners and as having served out our terms I made out the roll of my hundred and managed to give every man a foreign nativity. Those whose names would bear it were assigned to England Ireland Scotland France and Germany and the balance were distributed through Canada and the West Indies. After finishing the roll and sending it out I did not wonder that the Rebels believed the battles for the Union were fought by foreign mercenaries The other rolls were made out in the same way and I do not suppose that they showed five hundred native Americans in the Stockade The next day after sending out the rolls there came an order that all those whose names appeared thereon should fall in We did so promptly and as nearly every man in camp was included we fell in as for other purposes by hundreds and thousands We were then marched outside and massed around a stump on which stood a Rebel officer evidently waiting to make us a speech We awaited his remarks with the greatest impatience but He did not begin until the last division had marched out and came to a parade rest close to the stump It was the same old story Prisoners you can no longer have any doubt that your Government has cruelly abandoned you it makes no efforts to release you and refuses all our offers of exchange We are anxious to get our men back and have made every effort to do so but it refuses to meet us on any reasonable grounds Your Secretary of War has said that the Government can get along very well without you and General Halleck has said that you were nothing but a set of blackberry pickers and coffee boilers anyhow You ve already endured much more than it could expect of you you served it faithfully during the term you enlisted for and now when it is through with you it throws you aside to starve and die You also can have no doubt that the Southern Confederacy is certain to succeed in securing its independence It will do this in a few months It now offers you an opportunity to join its service and if you serve it faithfully to the end you will receive the same rewards as the rest of its soldiers You will be taken out of here be well clothed and fed given a good bounty and at the conclusion of the War receive a land warrant for a nice farm If you But we had heard enough The Sergeant of our division a man with a stentorian voice sprang out and shouted Attention first Division We Sergeants of hundreds repeated the command down the line
