

Afrika ans Notes Paper 2 Term 2

Short stories

1. All is fair in love and war (Jan van tonder):
 - the story is about Edwill, Helena and Waldemar, and they are in a love triangle.
 - Edwill and Lita have a plan to get Waldemar and Helena away from each other. En die plan kom by Edwill op toe die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle die storie van Helena van Troje vertel.
 - "In die klas het die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle eendag die storie van Helena van Troje vertel en van die houtperd waarin soldate weggesteek is sodat hulle die stad onopgemerk kon binnegaan. En daar en dan het Edwill 'n plan gekry: hy sou met Waldemar vriende maak."

Karakters:

- ↘ Helena - Herinner ons aan klassieke karakter Helena van Troje
- ↘ Edwill - Verlief om Helena. Beraam plan om haar hart te wen.
- ↘ Waldemar - aantreklik, goeie rugbyspeler, nie goed met kommunikeer/woorde nie, Helena se kêrel
- ↘ Lita - Edwill se suster. Help Edwill om Helena se hart te wen.

Die aanvangsoomblik is wanneer Edwill besef dat hy verlief is op Helena en dit met sy sussie deel. Ons sien dat die spanning begin bou wanneer Lita beweer dat hulle die Achilleshiel in die verhouding opgespoor het.

insident waar Edwill aanbied om Helena se boeties besig te hou sodat sy meer tyd saam met Waldemar kan deurbring en Helena

Analysis Of Afrikaans Short Story Benedicta:

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies South African Summary, 1962

Children's Literature Abstracts, 1993 Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs, 2019-03-11 In Media in Postapartheid South Africa author Sean Jacobs turns to media politics and the consumption of media as a way to understand recent political developments in South Africa and their relations with the African continent and the world Jacobs looks at how mass media define the physical and human geography of the society and what it means for comprehending changing notions of citizenship in postapartheid South Africa Jacobs claims that the media have unprecedented control over the distribution of public goods rights claims and South Africa's integration into the global political economy in ways that were impossible under the state controlled media that dominated the apartheid years Jacobs takes a probing look at television commercials and the representation of South Africans reality television shows and South African continental expansion soap operas and postapartheid identity politics and the internet as a space for reassertions and reconfigurations of identity As South Africa becomes more integrated into the global economy Jacobs argues that local media have more weight in shaping how consumers view these products in unexpected and consequential ways The Oxford Guide to Literature in English

Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature. It highlights the place of translation in our culture, encouraging awareness of the issues raised, making the translator more visible. Concentrating on major writers and works, it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean, from Swahili to Russian. For some works, e.g. Virgil's Aeneid, which have been much translated, the discussion is historical and critical, showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions. Elsewhere, with less familiar literatures, the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available. The Guide is divided into two parts. Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions, a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English, and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text, e.g. poetry, oral literature. The second, much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin; some are devoted to individual texts, e.g. the Thousand and One Nights, or writers, e.g. Ibsen, Proust, but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre, e.g. Chinese poetry, Spanish Golden Age drama, or of a national literature, e.g. Hungarian, Scottish Gaelic. There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators.

Translation Revision and Post-editing Maarit Koponen, Brian Mossop, Isabelle S. Robert, Giovanna Scocchera, 2020-10-26
Translation Revision and Post editing looks at the apparently dissolving boundary between correcting translations generated by human brains and those generated by machines. It presents new research on post editing and revision in government and corporate translation departments, translation agencies, the literary publishing sector and the volunteer sector, as well as on training in both types of translation checking work. This collection includes empirical studies based on surveys, interviews and keystroke logging, as well as more theoretical contributions questioning such traditional distinctions as translating versus editing. The chapters discuss revision and post editing involving eight languages: Afrikaans, Catalan, Dutch, English, Finnish, French, German and Spanish. Among the topics covered are translator-reviser relations and revising post editing by non-professionals. The book is key reading for researchers, instructors and advanced students in Translation Studies, as well as for professional translators with a special interest in checking translations.
Limits to Liberation After Apartheid Steven L. Robins, 2005
The post-apartheid public sphere in South Africa has been characterised by race tensions and distrust. Socio-economic inequalities and structural unemployment are contributing to widespread crises. In addressing the conceptual and empirical questions relating to the transition to democracy, the contributors to this volume take the questions of culture and identity seriously, drawing attention to the creative agency of citizens of the new South Africa They raise important questions concerning the limits of citizenship and procedural democracy Steven L Robins is Professor of Social Anthropology in the University of Stellenbosch North America Ohio U PressBR
