Lynda McDaniel,2018-02-05 I absolutely devoured this book Cynthia Williams Laurel Falls N C 1989 I couldn t believe I was in trouble again I d finally got what I d always wanted then lost it The trouble started when this family a mother and two almost grown kids came to my school the Hickson School of American Studies in Boone N C to ask for shelter The mother said she was dying and they had nowhere else to go after they d been evicted cause she was too sick to work What her son earned just wasn t enough to live on But that was all lies They were just a bunch of mean spirited sorry con artists who stole our money and good intentions And when they fleeced the school they made it look like I did it Next thing I knew the director threw me outta school I snuck home to get help from my neighbor and friend Della Kincaid She used to be a crime reporter in Washington D C and I knew she d know what to do She did only she told me I had to do it alone Trying to find them again took everything I had and then some Along the way I plowed through those mountains sometimes meeting fellow victims who were yearning for justice too but mostly tangling with bad men trying to stop me permanently I faced more twists and turns than the road to Damascus Virginia There was no telling who I could trust on that long road to justice but I ask you at some point don t you have to believe in something or someone Abit Bradshaw You ll enjoy this suspenseful mystery because who
