

Psychological Suspense

Both Michael and Minnie Williams have long been famous for psychological suspense novels depicting psychological issues such as domestic abuse, insanity, and incestuousness. These novels often depict the darker side of the protagonists' psyche, and the effect of trauma on the human mind. There are some unusual victim-perpetrator motifs in this genre.

Hitchcock's Music Jack Sullivan, 2020-08-11 A wonderfully coherent comprehensive groundbreaking and thoroughly engaging study of how the director of Psycho and The Birds used music in his films Sidney Gottlieb editor of Hitchcock on Hitchcock Alfred Hitchcock employed more musical styles and techniques than any film director in history from Marlene Dietrich singing Cole Porter in Stage Fright to the revolutionary electronic soundtrack of The Birds. Many of his films including Notorious, Rear Window, Vertigo, North by Northwest and Psycho are landmarks in the history of film music. Now author and musicologist Jack Sullivan presents the first in depth study of the role music plays in Hitchcock's films. Based on extensive interviews with composers, writers and actors as well as archival research, Sullivan discusses how Hitchcock used music to influence his cinematic atmospheres, characterizations and even storylines. Sullivan examines the director's relationships with various composers, especially Bernard Herrmann, and tells the stories behind some of their now iconic musical choices. Covering the entire director's career from the early British works up to Family Plot, this engaging work will change the way we watch and listen to Hitchcock's movies.

The Suspense

Thriller Charles Derry, 2010-06-21 This book is a comprehensive study of one of the most popular genres in the cinema. From a perspective sympathetic to popular culture, this study analyzes a large number of primarily American and European films by a variety of distinguished directors including Alfred Hitchcock, Claude Chabrol, John Frankenheimer, Michelangelo Antonioni and Costa Gavras. Indispensable to anyone interested in understanding how suspense thrillers work and what they mean, this book provides insightful analysis of hundreds of memorable films while at the same time working as a virtual how-to manual for anyone trying to write a Hitchcock-like thriller. The first section of the book is primarily theoretical. It offers a bibliographical survey and then explains why we so profoundly enjoy these suspenseful films of murder and intrigue. A chapter on Thrills or How Objects and Empty Spaces Compete to Threaten Us explores the psychological concept of the thrill and relates it to the psyche of the spectator. To what extent does the suspense thriller represent a symbolic and vicarious experience of danger? A chapter on Suspense That Makes the Spectator Take a Breath explores the crucial narrative concept of suspense and relates it to the psychological mechanisms of anxiety incited in the spectator. Why do we like to be scared? A final theoretical chapter offers a dynamic definition of the suspense thriller derived in part from Edgar Allan Poe and based primarily on content analysis. The second section of the book is more of an historical survey and devotes one chapter to each of the suspense thriller's primary sub-genres. These chapters provide close readings of more than 150 major films and detailed analysis of the suspense thriller's conventions, themes and recurrent iconography. Sub-genres include The Postman Always Rings Twice, Body Heat, The Manchurian Candidate, The China Syndrome, Missing, The Passenger, Spellbound, Obsession, Marathon Man and Blue Velvet. A final chapter explores areas for further research and offers concluding insights.
