Prince, 2009-08-06 It was believed that September 11th would make certain kinds of films obsolete such as action thrillers crackling with explosions or high casualty blockbusters where the hero escapes unscathed While the production of these films did ebb the full impact of the attacks on Hollywood's creative output is still taking shape Did 9 11 force filmmakers and screenwriters to find new methods of storytelling What kinds of movies have been made in response to 9 11 and are they factual Is it even possible to practice poetic license with such a devastating broadly felt tragedy Stephen Prince is the first scholar to trace the effect of 9 11 on the making of American film From documentaries like Fahrenheit 9 11 2004 to zombie flicks and from fictional narratives such as The Kingdom 2007 to Mike Nichols's Charlie Wilson's War 2007 Prince evaluates the extent to which filmmakers have exploited explained understood or interpreted the attacks and the Iraq War that followed including incidents at Abu Ghraib He begins with pre 9 11 depictions of terrorism such as Alfred Hitchcock's

Perturbatory Narration in Film Sabine Schlickers, Vera Toro, 2017-11-07 Perturbatory narration is a heuristic concept applicable both quantitatively and qualitatively to a specific type of complex narratives for which narratology has not yet found an appropriate classification This new term refers to complex narrative strategies that produce intentionally disturbing effects such as surprise confusion doubt or disappointment effects that interrupt or suspend immersion in the aesthetic reception process The initial task however is to indicate what narrative conventions are in fact questioned transgressed or given new life by perturbatory narration The key to our modeling lies in its combination of individual procedures of narrative strategies hitherto regarded as unrelated Their interplay has not yet attracted scholarly attention The essays in this volume present a wide range of contemporary films from Canada the USA Mexico Argentina Spain France and Germany The perturbatory narration concept enables to typify and systematize moments of disruption in fictional texts combining narrative processes of deception paradox and or empuzzlement and to analyse these perturbing narrative strategies in very different filmic texts

Memory in World Cinema Nancy J. Membrez, 2019-09-17 Film itself is an artifact of memory A blend of all the other fine arts film portrays and preserves human memory someone's memory faulty or not dramatically or comically in a documentary feature film or short Hollywood may dominate 80 percent of cinema production but it is not the only voice World cinema is about those other voices Drawn initially from presentations from a series of film conferences held at the University of Texas at San Antonio this collection of essays covers multiple geographical linguistic and cultural areas worldwide emphasizing the historical and cultural interpretation of films Appendices list films focusing on memory and invite readers to explore the films and issues raised

Forgiveness and Resentment in the Aftermath of Mass Atrocity Idit Alphandary, 2023-12-04 The author's starting point is the interweaving of forgiveness and resentment in the works of Jewish writers after the Holocaust most especially Hannah Arendt and Jean Améry to make sense of the catastrophe and to point to a way forward for both victims and perpetrators The insights of these two writers and of several Jewish novelists and poets including Bruno Schulz Paul Celan and Aharon Appelfeld are used to develop accounts of forgiveness and resentment in other cases of mass atrocity around the world The author offers a critical rereading of primary sources that aim to separate resentment from nonviolent resistance and forgiveness from reconciliation Forgiveness and resentment are not as they might first appear mutually exclusive Together with Arendt Améry and Walter Benjamin it is argued that it is through the interaction between them that victims of mass atrocity become agents of personal and cultural change Together forgiveness and resentment interrupt the present reframe the past and shape the future They can reduce the chasm that separates memory and trust by fashioning new connections between identity and alterity which can open paths to truly ethical coexistence for victims and perpetrators and their descendants
