Manitoba Law Journal: A Review of the Current Legal Landscape 2017 Volume 40(1) Darcy L. MacPherson, et al., The Manitoba Law Journal is a peer reviewed journal founded in 1961 The MLJ s current mission is to provide lively independent and high caliber commentary on legal events in Manitoba or events of special interest to our community This issue has articles from a variety of contributing authors including Bryan P Schwartz Thomas A Cromwell Charles Jr Donahue Anne Krahn Sarah Inness Stacy Cawley Bettina Schaible G Greg Brodsky Thomas S Harrison Francois Du Toit and Darcy L MacPherson Emerging Dynamics in the Provision of Private Higher Education in Africa Wondwosen

Tamrat,Damtew Teferra,2024-05-29 This edited book examines the private higher education PHE sector in African countries Reports suggest that private institutions across the continent outnumber their public counterparts yet there has been little scholarly investigation into this emerging phenomenon The book therefore seeks to document map and analyse key trends and contemporary themes in the PHE sector as well as chart historical developments policy and regulatory frameworks As a whole it provides the reader with in depth knowledge rich perspectives and robust analyses from leading authorities in the field Contributions from all sub regions combine thematic issues with shaping discourse on the topic and the discussions are undertaken in the context of global perspectives The book will be of interest to academics researchers postgraduate students policy makers analysts and development partners interested in African higher education and PHE in particular The Survival Guide To Journalism Synge, Dan,2010-06-01 The Survival Guide to Journalism is aimed not only at undergraduate and post graduate students of Journalism but indeed anyone from any background who is interested in making a living full or part time either through their writing and editorial ability In it you ll find some traditional journalistic principles as well as up to date information on where the best opportunities are today My advice is deliberately hands on and straight to the point and I have included useful tips from top working professionals There are exercises to try out and short Q A sessions to help clear up any uncertainties there may be about each chapter Where possible I have included useful links and contacts to organisations that specialise in helping aspiring journalists to survive through those difficult first months and years Because it pays to have the right survival skills The Survival Guide to Journalism sums up the state of the industry today and how to establish yourself in it as well as including practical guidelines on news and feature writing The Survival Guide to Journalism concentrates on freelance journalism with the emphasis on practicalities such as sending an invoice or dealing with tax issues More specialist areas of writing have also been covered such as arts reviewing travel writing and blogging and the book highlights some of the exciting opportunities created by new media Young Adults and Active Citizenship

Natasha Kersh,Hanna Toiviainen,Pirkko Pitkänen,George K. Zarifis,2021-04-21 This open access book sheds light on a range of complex interdependencies between adult education young adults in vulnerable situations and active citizenship Adult education has been increasingly recognized as a means to engage and re engage young adults and facilitate their life chances and social inclusion thus contributing to an active citizenship within their societal contexts This collection of chapters dealing with issues of social inclusion of young people represents the first book to explicitly approach the complex interdependencies between adult education young adults in vulnerable situations and active citizenship from the European perspective Social exclusion disengagement and disaffection of young adults have been among the most significant concerns faced by EU member states over the last decade It has been increasingly recognised by a range of stakeholders that there is a growing number of young people suffering from the various effects of the unstable social economic and political situations affecting Europe and its neighbouring countries Young adults who experience different degrees of vulnerability are especially at risk of being excluded and marginalised Engaging young adults through adult education has been strongly related to addressing the specific needs and requirements that would facilitate their participation in social economic and civic political life in their country contexts Fostering the active citizenship of young people both directly and indirectly is an area where many AE programmes overlap and this has become a core approach to integration This book considers social economic and political dimensions of active citizenship encompassing the development of social competences and social capital civic and political participation and the skills related to the economy and labour market The cross national consideration of the notions of vulnerability inclusion and active citizenship underpins the complexity of translating these concepts into the national contexts of adult education programmes

Tradition and Islamic Learning Norshahril Saat,2018-03-19 The Al Azhar University remains the top destination for Southeast Asian students pursuing an Islamic studies degree The university built in the last millennium has been able to withstand competition from modern universities across the globe and continues to produce influential Islamic studies graduates What are the motivations of students pursuing a degree at Al Azhar What are the challenges they face Are they certain of their future and career opportunities upon their return to Singapore This book combines both qualitative and quantitative analysis of former and current students at the Al Azhar University It not only hopes to develop more critical analysis of returning Al Azhar graduates but also attempts to understand the deeper connections between Muslims in Southeast Asia particularly Singapore and the Middle East

Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo,2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists engineers and architects all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world

Statutory Instruments Great Britain, 1976 A Voice for Mothers Linda Bryder, 2013-10-01 The Plunket Society founded in 1907 has been heralded as New Zealand's most successful and famous voluntary organisation Run by women for women it played a vital role in the care of mothers and babies for most of the twentieth century becoming a national and international icon A Voice for Mothers this comprehensive history of Plunket covers three broad themes the relationship between the voluntary sector and the State in the provision of welfare the development of paediatrics and the relationship between health providers and their clients the mothers Bryder stresses in particular infant health and welfare the political pressures applied by the government and medical profession the influence of the remarkable women who shaped the fortunes of the society and its diminishing impact in recent years She also compares New Zealand's experience with other countries like Australia and Britain and outlines the philosophy behind the organisation Posh Boys Robert Verkaik, 2018-07-05 The latest in the series of powerful books on the divisions in modern Britain and will take its place on many bookshelves beside Reni Eddo Lodge's Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People About Race and Owen Jones's Chavs Andrew Marr Sunday Times In his fascinating enraging polemic Verkaik touches on one of the strangest aspects of the elite schools and their product's domination of public life for two and a half centuries the acquiescence of everyone else Observer In Britain today the government judiciary and military are all led by an elite who attended private school Under their watch our society has become increasingly divided and the gap between rich and poor is now greater than ever before Is this the country we want to live in If we care about inequality we have to talk about public schools Robert Verkaik issues a searing indictment of the system originally intended to educate the most underprivileged Britons and outlines how through meaningful reform we can finally make society fairer for all Sports Law in Russia Olga Rymkevich, 2024-01-18 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in Russia deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations The growing internationalization of sports inevitably increases the weight of global regulation yet each country maintains its own distinct regime of sports law and its own national and local sports organizations Sports law at a national or organizational level thus gains a growing relevance in comparative law The book describes and discusses both state created rules and autonomous self regulation regarding the variety of economic social commercial cultural and political aspects of sports activities Self regulation manifests itself in the form of by laws and encompasses organizational provisions disciplinary rules and rules of play However the trend towards more professionalism in sports and the growing economic social and cultural relevance of sports have prompted an increasing reliance on legal rules adopted by public authorities This form of regulation appears in a variety of legal areas including criminal law labour law commercial law tax law competition law and tort law and may vary following a particular type or sector of sport It is in this dual and overlapping context that such much publicized aspects as doping sponsoring and media and responsibility for injuries are legally measured This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics practitioners sports organizations and policy makers access to sports law at this specific level Lawyers representing parties with interests in Russia will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law The Statesman's Yearbook 2017 Palgrave
