"ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man,Tina Juki,2016-06-02 Hani Janet Smith,Beauregard Tromp,2023-02-28 This is an excellent portrayal of the Chris I knew Not one word of exaggeration so large was Chris His contribution to our freedom is inestimable Mavuso Msimang ANC veteran and former member of the military high command of uMkhonto we Sizwe Chris Hani s assassination in 1993 gave rise to two of South Africa s greatest political questions If he had survived what impact would he have had on the ANC government And could this charismatic man have risen to become president of the country In the 30th anniversary year of his murder by right wing fanatics this updated version of the seminal biography of Hani re evaluates his legacy and traces his life from his childhood in rural Transkei to the crisis in the ANC camps in the 1980s and the perilous last 36 months he spent back home rallying for South Africa s freedom Drawing on interviews with those who knew him this vividly written book provides a detailed account of the life of a hero of South Africa s liberation who was both an intellectual and a fighter The Forgotten People Saleem Badat,2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them New Scientist ,1987

Annual Report on Basutoland Great Britain. Office of Commonwealth Relations,1947 Basutoland Great Britain. Colonial Office,1949 Basutoland Great Britain. Office of Commonwealth Relations,1946 The Liberal Dilemma in South Africa P. L. van den Berghe,2022-10-05 Originally published in 1979 The Liberal Dilemma in South Africa discusses the dilemma of how to overthrow an oppressive social order maintained through violence in a non violent manner The contributors to this volume were all established social scientists and academics with extensive experience of living and doing research in South Africa They analyse various aspects of that dilemma and of the social order which creates it particularly emphasizing the role of students academics and other intellectuals in South African society Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa Chris Saunders,Helder Adegar Fonseca,Lena Dallywater,2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings

Public History and Culture in South Africa Ali Khangela Hlongwane, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2019-04-11 The post apartheid era in South Africa has in the space of nearly two decades experienced a massive memory boom manifest in a plethora of new memorials and museums and in the renaming of streets buildings cities and more across the country This memorialisation is intricately linked to questions of power liberation and public history in the making and remaking of the South African nation Ali Khangela Hlongwane and Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu analyse an array of these liberation heritage sites including the Hector Pieterse Memorial and Museum the June 16 1976 Interpretation Centre the Apartheid Museum and the Mandela House Museum foregrounding the work of migrant workers architects visual artists and activists in the practice of memorialisation As they argue memorialisation has been integral to the process of state and nation formation from the pre colonial era through the present day

Rough Diamonds Hendrik Snyders, 2025-08-22 Starting in the late 19th century South African baseball has established a fascinating and multi layered history Initially established by a small group of dedicated pioneers the sport benefited from the contributions of a diverse and multi national group of enthusiasts and opponents including sailors cricketers missionaries activists businessmen and bureaucrats Established at a time of social and political segregation the South African game eventually developed into a system of legislated racism under apartheid Through its willing participation in official race based events the sport was stripped of its innocence and South Africa was formally expelled from the world game only to be readmitted in 1992 following the country s slow transition to democracy This book presents the history of South African baseball from its inception to its liberation from apartheid Based on extensive archival research this is the first integrated history of South African baseball s eventful past

Education in Exile Sean Morrow, Brown Maaba, Loyiso Pulumani, 2004 Charting the debates and difficulties surrounding the formation of the unique and self reliant Solomon Mahlangu Freedom College SOMAFSCO this study examines the curricula philosophies and experiences at this controversial institute Describing student life campus organizations and political activities the detailed research also follows the often traumatized state of the exiled pupils

Southern Rhodesia-South Africa Relations, 1923-1953 Abraham Mlombo, 2020-09-07 This book provides the first comprehensive study of the special relationship between Southern Rhodesia and South Africa While most studies approach this from the history of British and South African relations or the history of South African territorial expansion this book offers new insights by examining Southern Rhodesia s relations with South Africa from the former s perspective Exploring relations through the lens of settler colonialism the book argues that settler colonialism in the region was marked by a competitive and antagonistic relationship between settler communities particularly Afrikaner and English communities The book explores the connections between these countries by examining high politics economic links and social and cultural ties highlighting both instances of competition and cooperation Above all it argues that economic ties were the cornerstone of the relationship and that these shaped the rest of the ties between the two countries Drawing on archival records from Britain South Africa and Zimbabwe as well as a number of secondary sources it offers a much more nuanced perspective of this relationship than has been previously offered

50 Facts That Should Change The World 2.0 Jessica Williams, 2007-11-01 Jessica Williams revisits her classic series of snapshots of life in the twenty first century Revised and updated with lots of new material this book is every bit as vital as the first edition From the inequalities and absurdities of the so called developed world to the vast scale of suffering wreaked by war famine and AIDS in developing countries it paints a picture of incredible contrasts This 2 0 edition again contains an eclectic selection of facts addressing a broad range of global issues now with added emphasis on climate change the decline in human rights and democratic freedoms around the world the unexpected global impact of corporate growth sports and media madness and inequality and lots of updated facts and figures Each is followed by a short essay explaining the story behind the fact fleshing out the bigger problem lurking behind the numbers Real life stories anecdotes and case studies help to humanize the figures and make clear the human impact of the bald statistics All of the facts remind us that whether we like to think of it or not the world is interconnected and civilization is a fragile concept Williams makes us think about some of the hard facts about our civilization and what we can do about them Decolonising Journalism Education in South Africa Ms Zubeida Jaffer ,Prof. Ylva Rodny-Gumede ,Dr Mvuso Ponono ,Prof. Colin Chasi ,2021-12-20 With 342 years of colonialism and apartheid in South Africa a book of this calibre is essential to contribute to scholarly debates on the decolonisation of the media After the democratic dispensation in 1994 there was a narrow pursuit of transformation and media freedom while neglecting decolonisation patriarchal tendencies and the plight of black women journalists who are often vilified while discharging their duties It was two decades after democracy that the RhodesMustFall movement which later evolved into FeesMustFall movement reignited debates on decoloniality in the academia Moreover the book is published during the second wave of FeesMustFall student protests and the demand for decolonised free education is inevitable as no permanent solution to student funding crisis was crafted In the same vein the book advocates for decolonised pedagogy in universities including journalism curriculum That ownership of the media is still skewed towards white and with only few black companies gradually joining the industry also brings into doubt media freedom editorial independence ethics and integrity among media practitioners Therefore the decoloniality movement seeks to confront these structural challenges head on via dialogue to ensure the integrity of the journalism profession Decolonising journalism in South Africa is published at a time in which journalism serves a watchdog and a critique of a democratic government and needs to follow a bottom up social justice approach and become a voice to the voiceless Therefore this book seeks to revolutionise the media in a way that even the language of reporting of certain issues needs to be changed to a balanced kind of reporting characterised by principles of no fear or favour A Just Defiance Peter Harris,2012-08-06 Both a riveting courtroom drama and a real life thriller A Just Defiance tells the story of four young black South Africans who were arrested for a string of political murders in 1987 In gripping prose Peter Harris the white lawyer who defended the men describes how he came to understand while constructing the case to save the defendants from the death penalty the chain of events that led them to undergo training at ANC camps in Angola and return to their homeland to execute some of the apartheid regime s most notorious collaborators The shocking twists and turns of the high profile trial kept the public in suspense during the dying days of apartheid Harris s account of the trial is intercut with flashbacks to instances of the cold blooded brilliance and deadly efficiency of the squad s operations We see Nelson Mandela recently released from Robben Island as he begins negotiations that will eventually lead to the assumption of power by the ANC We read about bomb making and assassination attempts by both the ANC and the South African police A critical and popular success in South Africa this book is a tale of people driven to extremes by injustice and repression and of ordinary citizens caught up in extraordinary events Finally it is the story of a country s search for reconciliation one that captures the moral vertigo of South Africa s violent apartheid years Handbook of Library Methods

Marguerite Andrée Peters, 1966 The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about
