Large-class Pedagogy David J. Hornsby, Ruksana Osman, Jacqueline De Matos-Ala, 2013-08-01 I highly recommend this edited collection It is a timely intervention when universities around the world are facing changes akin to the newspaper industry a decade ago The authors remind us of the potential power of the lecture and that there does not need to be a trade off between the size of the class and the quality of the delivery Professor James Arvanitakis 2012 recipient of the Prime Minister s Teaching and Learning Award University of Western Sydney Australia This is the first book of its kind that considers the complex issues of large classes As such it makes a very important contribution and provides a deep insight into large class pedagogy from a conceptual and practical perspective Dr Mandia Menits Massey University New Zealand If the thought of teaching large classes fills you with dread if you think that pedagogic innovation is impossible in the face of burgeoning student numbers or if you simply wish to understand more about the dynamics of this increasingly common environment in Higher Education then this is the book for you Written by highly experienced academics it is a valuable and long overdue resource for supporting good practice in the large class context Dr Jenny Hadingham University of Rochester New York

Richardson, John R. Wilson, Tsungai A. Zengeya, 2020-03-10 This open access volume presents a comprehensive account of all aspects of biological invasions in South Africa where research has been conducted over more than three decades and where bold initiatives have been implemented in attempts to control invasions and to reduce their ecological economic and social effects It covers a broad range of themes including history policy development and implementation the status of invasions of animals and plants in terrestrial marine and freshwater environments the development of a robust ecological theory around biological invasions the effectiveness of management interventions and scenarios for the future The South African situation stands out because of the remarkable diversity of the country and the wide range of problems encountered in its varied ecosystems which has resulted in a disproportionate investment into both research and management The South African experience holds many lessons for other parts of the world and this book should be of immense value to researchers students managers and policy makers who deal with biological invasions and ecosystem management and conservation in most other regions Joernaal Van Die Suid-Afrikaanse Instituut Van Siviele Ingenieurs , 2004 Masters Abstracts International , 1987 SO MUCH WATER, SO LITTLE WOOD DANIEL J. Theron M.A., Th. Ph.D., 2014 To appreciate this book readers must grasp the symbolism of its title and the front page depicting the author's life story sometimes in rough seas At three four years old he was already strongly aware that he had been called into the Christian ministry an inspiration for a long fruitful life He grew up helping in their South African farm life He commuted to grammar school on horseback accumulating enough miles to ride three times from New York to California It was a financial struggle to become ordained as a clergyman His story is interestingly interspersed with several short unbelievable biographies of classmates and what life was like Read the The Sturdy Warrior Chapter V and others like Albert Schweitzer of the Bushveld and We Shall Triumph in the book mentioned below With several well earned degrees he migrated to the USA to study at Princeton Theological Seminary where he became a professor But then the delicate call that had driven him since childhood was smashed seemingly beyond repair However for him those called into God's Kingdom can in its wideness find symbolic pulpits and lecterns in many places Of all he found such in Wall Street and applied himself with the Latin saying's strong command age quod agis Do what you are doing How is it continuing Please find out in this book's sequel entitled Faith Hope and Determination Impact assessment of IFPRI's capacity-strengthening work, 1985-2010 Kuyvenhoven, Arie, 2015-01-21 Strengthening national capacities for undertaking communicating and using evidence based food policy analysis has long been one of the International Food Policy Research Institute's IFPRI's major objectives To that end IFPRI has engaged in different kinds of capacity strengthening that include formal training policy networks country strategic policy support research collaboration with individuals and organizations institutional development support to university degree programs visiting fellows and training of postdoctoral fellows The Interface of Accounting Education and Professional Training Elaine Evans, Roger Juchau, Richard M.S. Wilson, 2014-07-16 Over many decades the global development of professional accounting education programmes has been undertaken by higher education institutions professional accounting bodies and employers These institutions have sometimes co operated and sometimes been in conflict over the education and or training of future accounting professionals These ongoing problems of linkage and closure between academic accounting education and professional training have new currency because of pressures from students and employers to move accounting preparation onto a more efficient economic and practical basis The Interface of Accounting Education and Professional Training explores current elements of the interface between the academic education and professional training of accountants in Australia New Zealand South Africa and the UK It argues for a reassessment of the considerations and requirements for developing professional accounting programs which can make a student capable of being an accountant the academy ready to be an accountant the workplace and professional in being an accountant the professional bodies This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An International Journal
