Logical Form Andrea Iacona, 2018-01-28 Logical form has always been a prime concern for philosophers belonging to the analytic tradition For at least one century the study of logical form has been widely adopted as a method of investigation relying on its capacity to reveal the structure of thoughts or the constitution of facts This book focuses on the very idea of logical form which is directly relevant to any principled reflection on that method Its central thesis is that there is no such thing as a correct answer to the question of what is logical form two significantly different notions of logical form are needed to fulfill two major theoretical roles that pertain respectively to logic and to semantics This thesis has a negative and a positive side The negative side is that a deeply rooted presumption about logical form turns out to be overly optimistic there is no unique notion of logical form that can play both roles The positive side is that the distinction between two notions of logical form once properly spelled out sheds light on some fundamental issues concerning the relation between logic and language

Casual Work Arrangements and Platform-Based Work Ilda Durri, 2023-08-22 Platform work in which work activities are channelled through web platforms or apps has emerged as one of the major transformations in the world of work over the past decade Although platform work presents many of the labour law issues related to casual work often linked to insecure or precarious working conditions until this book no in depth research has been conducted on specifically positioning platform work in the context of casual work arrangements The author systematically evaluates how strategies aimed at regulating casual work can be extended to enhance the employment relationships and working conditions of platform workers The analysis proceeds through a detailed comparative legal analysis of casual work in four industrialized countries the United Kingdom the Netherlands Belgium and Italy shedding light on the divergent regulatory approaches to this work typology Then it moves on to EU legislators efforts to develop a regulatory matrix on casual work focusing on directives such as those on fixed term work working time and transparent and predictable working conditions The author concludes with recommendations for redefining the EU legal initiative on platform work in light of the national and EU legal instruments examined in this contribution Issues such as the insecure nature of work unpaid stand by time and work insecurity come to the fore The purpose of this book is to assist policymakers and social partners in finding viable legal solutions to tackle some of the labour protection challenges posed by platform work At the same time it serves as a reminder to EU policymakers that existing legal instruments on casual work constitute an available blueprint which could be beneficial in dealing with such regulatory problems Issues and topics covered in a nutshell include the following what is captured under the label of casual work arrangements the shared features between casual work and platform work with a focus on their insecure working conditions the employment status insecurity the insecurity of working hours the uncertainty of the continuity of employment the income insecurity peculiar traits of platform work the development of the EU regulatory matrix on casual work the relevance of the directives on working time fixed term work and transparent and predictable working conditions for the protection of platform workers and the improvement of the proposal for a Platform Work Directive in light of the above instruments

Academic Governance in the Contemporary University Julie Rowlands, 2016-10-12 This book addresses three central questions in contemporary university governance 1 How and why has academic governance in Anglophone nations changed in recent years and what impact have these changes had on current practices 2 How do power relations within universities affect decisions about teaching and research and what are the implications for academic voices 3 How can those involved in university governance and management improve academic governance processes and outcomes and why is it important that they do so The book explores these issues in clear concise and accessible language that will appeal to higher education researchers and governance practitioners alike It draws on extensive empirical data from key national systems in the Anglophone world but goes beyond the simply descriptive to analyse and explain

Socio-Pragmatic Variation in Ireland Martin Schweinberger, Patricia Ronan, 2024-07-22 Pragmatics represents the study of language use in socially grounded contexts and it is thus a central discipline in Linguistics Due to its focus on language use it has been referred to as a transdiscipline that interacts with a broad variety of disciplines that are concerned with social action and as such pragmatics overlaps with many other linguistic and non linguistic disciplines Irish English is one of the earliest varieties of English to have attracted the interest of scholars working on pragmatic variation From a sociolinguistic and a pragmatics perspective it represents one of the best studied varieties of English and can thus be argued to offer important impulses to the study of variationist pragmatics in general Ulster Scots though in close contact with Irish English has received less attention Given this important position of Irish English in pragmatics research and the paucity of such research on Ulster Scots this volume explicitly focuses on socio pragmatics and deals with the way speakers in and around Ireland use language in a way so that it assists them in the construction of their social identities or helps them navigate socio cultural spaces ECEL2015-14th European Conference on e-Learning, Amanda Jefferies and Marija Cubric ,2015-10-13 These Proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 14th European Conference on e Learning ECEL 2015 hosted this year by the University of Hertfordshire Hatfield UK on 29 30 October 2015 The Conference and Programme Co Chairs are Pro fessor Amanda Jefferies and Dr Marija Cubric both from the University of Hertfordshire The conference will be opened with a keynote address by Professor Patrick McAndrew Director Institute of Educational Tech nology Open University UK with a talk on Innovating for learning designing for the future of education On the second day the keynote will be delivered by Professor John Traxler University of Wolverhampton UK on the subject of Mobile Learning No Longer Just e Learning with Mobiles ECEL provides a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of e Learning At the same time it provides an important opportunity for members of the EL community to come together with peers share knowledge and exchange ideas With an initial submission of 169 abstracts after the double blind peer review process there are 86 academic papers 16 Phd Papers 5 Work in Progress papers and 1 non academic papers in these Conference Proceedings These papers reflect the truly global nature of research in the area with contributions from Algeria Australia Austria Belgium Botswana Canada Chile Cov entry Czech Republic Denmark Egypt England Estonia France Germany Ireland Japan Kazakhstan New Zealand Nigeria Norway Oman Portugal Republic of Kazakhstan Romania Saudi Arabia Scotland Singapore South Africa Sweden the Czech Republic Turkey Uganda UK United Arab Emirates UK and USA Zimbabwe A selection of papers those agreed by a panel of reviewers and the editor will be published in a special conference edition of the EJEL Electronic Journal of e Learning www ejel org
