beginning, back of your mind, usually, is an intention to influence your audience. You are not a neutral, disinterested observer, and it is inevitable that your attitudes and emotions—and particularly attitudes, if you write down anything—will influence you, and that is good. Such influence is not a bad thing. It is a good thing. It leads only to progress, and after identifying what is working for you, and what isn't, working on what is working is a good thing. It leads to progress. Goodness has nothing to do with the debate. Research shows that emotions and passions are essential to
