Villages in Indonesia Koentjaraningrat, 2007 The wide variety of ethnic groups in Indonesia is reflected in the ethnic diversity among Indonesian villages Until now descriptive studies of village life have been virtually nonexistent except in the Dutch language This collection of comprehensive surveys of thirteen villages in Indonesia provides the first major study of this fundamental level of Indonesian society in the post colonial period The studies are based on first hand field experience by outstanding Indonesian Dutch and American scholars The villages included are representative of the variety of social political economic and religious systems in the major island regions Sumatra Java Bali Sumbawa Timor Kalimantan Sulawesi Ambon and West Irian Most of the contributors are anthropologists but a sociologist an agronomist and an authority on adat law are also represented Although the articles reflect the particular interests of the individual authors certain general anthropological topics such as demography settlement patterns subsistence economy land tenure and social and political structures are covered in each to allow for comparisons among the studies The editor has added a history of Indonesian village studies and in a concluding chapter he makes general observations about village life in Indonesia In addition to illustrating the range of Indonesia's ethnic diversity these village surveys provide greater understanding of the social phenomena and processes that form a basic part of contemporary life in a rapidly changing country KOENTJARANINGRAT 1923 1999 was a professor and head of the Department of Anthropology at the University of Indonesia He was the author of numerous scholarly books and articles in both the Indonesian and English languages Preparing Indonesian Youth, 2020-08-25 Preparing Indonesian Youth A Review of Educational Research offers insights into the challenges and prospects in preparing Indonesian youth for 21st century living The chapters feature empirically based case studies focusing on three key aspects of education in Indonesia teachers and teaching school practices programs and innovations and the social contexts of youth and schooling The case studies also represent different vantage points contributing to an enriched understanding of how larger social phenomenon for example education decentralisation in Indonesia rural urban and transnational migration international benchmarking assessments and the global feminist and women's movement impact and interact with enacted visions of preparing all youth educationally for work as well as for meaningful participation in their respective communities and the Indonesian society at large Contributors are Anindito Aditomo Hasriadi Masalam Juliana Murniati Ahmad Bukhori Muslim Wahyu Nurhayati Shuki Osman Margaretha Purwanti Esti Rahayu Ila Rosmilawati Andrew Rosser Widjajanti M Santoso Anne Suryani Aries Sutantoputra Novita W Sutantoputri Isabella Tirtowaluyo Nina Widyawati and David Wright Ecotourism and Indonesia's Primates Sharon L. Gursky, Jatna Supriatna, Angela Achorn, 2022-11-11 The basic goal of the volume is to compile the most up to date research on the effect of ecotourism on Indonesia's primates The tremendous diversity of primates in Indonesia in conjunction with the conservation issues facing the primates of this region have created a crisis whereby many of Indonesia's primates are threatened with extinction Conservationists have developed the concept of sustainable ecotourism to fund conservation activities National parks agencies worldwide receive as much as 84% of their funding from ecotourism While ecotourism funds the majority of conservation activities there have been very few studies that explore the effects of ecotourism on the habitat and species that they are designed to protect It is the burgeoning use of ecotourism throughout Indonesia that has created a need for this volume where the successes and pitfalls at various sites can be identified and compared Resources in Education ,1998 Oahu Restaurant Guide 2005 with Honolulu and Waikiki Robert Carpenter,Robert E.
