Differences, Deceits and Desires Mirna Cicioni, Nicoletta Di Ciolla, 2008 Italian crime fiction known as gialli in Italy has developed from a popular genre to a fully fledged literary genre and in the past thirty years it has gradually become the focus of growing interest from literary critics as well as the reading public This collection of twelve essays is the first one in English to deal exclusively with Italian crime fiction The essays are scholarly yet accessible contributions to the growing research in this field They analyze texts by well known authors such as Umberto Eco Leonardo Sciascia and Andrea Camilleri as well as works by younger writers They bring together four of the most significant strands of Italian gialli the way gialli develop or subvert the tradition and conventions of the crime genre regional specificity within Italian crime fiction gialli by and about women lesbians and gay men and representations of Italy in gialli written by English speaking writers The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality
