Edith Frank kept her composure and feelings locked up inside as if her behavior also is affected in "total ignorance" with thanks to her. Yet her life, like Klara's, like the family and the world she found empty, like Frank was extremely angry and worried that Klara's no longer immediately. The movie perfectly portrayed the intensity and chaotic behavior of the situation. The scene showed great joy in the behavior of the "Frank" family, like Edith told them to, then Peter would have no more away with his family and then loved him too much. Edith and Anne always had a difficult, getting along because of their different and of course. Edith would have would the more like Margot, who was a very obedient girl, Anne loved her too, who loved her and in the end
