Annual Report Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, 2004      Performance Appraisal Sugan C. Jain, 2002      Marketing In India, Cases And Readings - S. Neelamegham, 2012 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the current marketing environment in India. It examines the changing dynamics of marketing management against the backdrop of globalization and liberalization, analysing how both marketers and consumers are adapting to radical changes. Insightful perspectives on key issues including market segmentation, brand strategy, product planning, advertising, pricing, and distribution strategies, as well as challenges of rural marketing, are given. This Fourth Edition boasts incisive coverage of all contemporary concepts and formats of marketing, including retailing, Internet marketing, and telemarketing. It is further enriched by varied case studies drawn from the Indian experience and will go a long way to inculcate skills of analysis, logical thinking, and decision making in students. Valuable not only to students and teachers of marketing management, the book is a must-have for practising managers who want to stay abreast with the latest developments in their field.      Reforming Public Enterprises R. K. Mishra, Ch. Lakshmi Kumari, J. Kiranmai, 2008 Public enterprises reforms occupy the central place in the schemes of economic reforms in India. In many developing countries, opting for economic reforms, public enterprise reforms have come at the beginning of the cycle of economic reforms. In India, it has not happened so, and the results are there for us to see. The present book makes an attempt to present a case for reforming public enterprises in India and also the agenda for action for this purpose. It outlines the challenges ahead for public enterprises and the need for reforms viewed from the global perspective. It outlines the performance of the public enterprises and the areas requiring the attention of the reformers. It presents the case of a state in which reforms have to be carried out and the context for such reforms. It identifies regulations as one of the key components of the reforms. The book also elucidates the reform experience of some of the states. It presents a balanced view of the theory and practice of public enterprise management in the reform context. It incorporates case studies of nine public enterprises to demonstrate the need and effect of economic reforms.      The Rise of Asian Paints Anupam Gupta, 2024-05-22 Asian Paints is India's largest paints company, and its early history is hardly known; even less is known about how Champaklal Choksey and his friends made Asian Paints the largest paints company in as far back as 1967. There are many lessons that are relevant even today, from investing in high quality talent to separating management and ownership. Most importantly, there are very few books that show how honest businessmen can and should build large-scale institutions that endure beyond their lifetime, just as Champaklal Choksey has done. This book tells the story of an iconic institution and its less-known but visionary founder.      Making Cars in the New
