Rock Star David R. Shumway, 2014-09-15 Filled with memorable photographs Rock Star will appeal to anyone interested in modern American popular culture or music history With God on Our Side Steven Félix-Jäger, 2017-01-11 Rock and roll is more than just music Rock is a culture and an ideology which carries its own ethos It is forcefully countercultural and exists as a bane in the sight of dominant Western culture As rock engages and critiques culture it invariably encounters issues of meaning that are existential and theological A transformational theology of rock begins with those existential and theological issues raised by and within rock music With God On Our Side attempts to respond to these queries in a way that is faithful to the work of the kingdom of God on earth by mining our long theological tradition and seeing what cohesive responses can be made to the issues raised by rock music At its best rock acknowledges there is something wrong with the world raises awareness of marginalized voices and offers an alternative mode of existence within our present reality By teasing out the theological issues found in rock music this book synthesizes the findings to create a distinctive cultural theology that is sensitive to the plight of the marginalized in the West In this way the book offers a way forward towards a transformational theology of rock and roll Sound Matters Nora M. Alter, Lutz Peter Koepnick, 2005-10 Working across established disciplines methodological divides these essays investigate the ways in which texts artists performers in all kinds of media have utilized sound materials in order to enforce or complicate dominant notions of German cultural national identity Soap Opera and Women's Talk Mary Ellen Brown, 1994-05-17 Brown states soap operas create and support a social network in which talk becomes a form of resistive pleasure It tells how soap operas create the opening for women to serve as wedges in the dominant culture and how the hegemonic notions of femininity and womanhood are developed

Television Studies Gary C. Burns, Robert Thompson, 1989-03-27 Burns and Thompson help to remedy the lack of a forum for current research on television by bringing together in this volume some of the best recent research in television studies This work will begin to fill the gap in literature on television studies as a discipline In compiling these 13 papers the editors maintain a balance of timely interest and lasting relevance The contributors study the texts of current TV dramatic and comic series such as Dallas and Cheers as well as current trends in nonfiction TV such as network and local news coverage Each analysis of a specific television text is complimented with rigorous theoretical argumentation Students and scholars of communications and television criticism will find Television Studies valuable reading The book begins with a two chapter debate primarily seeking a definition of television studies The debate includes a critical examination of the capitalist institutions that dominate television as an industry Further chapters discuss dramatic television series an examination of the development of the lengthy serial text of Dallas and structural analysis of the pilot episode of Cheers The book contains five essays on nonfiction television including an insiders view of the production and promotion of local TV news and an analysis of CBS and ABC's TV news coverage of South Africa over a two week period in 1987 In a final essay conventional wisdom about the audience is refuted Looking at the Eighties Sally Stockbridge,1994 New Directions in Popular Communication Audience Studies Lynn Schofield Clark,2005 As new developments in the study of media audiences have unfolded in recent years new concerns have entered the landscape New Directions in Popular Communication Audience Studies addresses the topic of globalization one of the most sweeping concerns that has reconceptualized the relationship among media audiences and power This special issue covers current debates over meaning making that have arisen within the context of these concerns The articles examine scholarship in globalization and media relating to the fields of media studies anthropology and American Studies Highlighting important new directions for the study of popular communication this special issue offers ways that researchers can reconsider their own projects and interests in light of worldwide developments that affect us all Reinventing Certainties Matthew Wheelock Stahl,2006 Canadian University Music Review ,1990 Genre ,2001 Selling Worship Pete Ward,2005 The evangelical church has undergone a significant change in culture and theology over the last thirty five years Selling Worship argues that this has been achieved through the adoption of a particular style of worship In effect the songs or rather the practice of singing and listening to the songs carry the culture and practice of the church This has come about through the contextualization of worship in the production selling and consumption of associated popular music Selling Worship tells the recent history of evangelicalism through the lives actions and economic processes of festival organizers record companies magazines and worship leaders It presents a comprehensive account of how these changes have come about and offers a multilayered pattern of interpretation to show how what we sing has changed the church The book concludes with a critical appreciation of worship and offers practical guidelines for the future Brio ,1984 Re-Situating Identities Vered Amit,Caroline Knowles,1996-03 These essays seek to re energize race and ethnic studies by moving away from the extremes of statistical reductionism and textual preoccupation that have marked the field and focusing instead on systematic and empirically grounded investigations of the production of identities in power relationships Representing Jazz Krin Gabbard,1995 Traditional jazz studies have tended to see jazz in purely musical terms as a series of changes in rhythm tonality and harmony or as a parade of great players But jazz has also entered the cultural mix through its significant impact on novelists filmmakers dancers painters biographers and photographers Representing Jazz explores the other history of jazz created by these artists a history that tells us as much about the meaning of the music as do the many books that narrate the lives of musicians or describe their recordings Krin Gabbard has gathered essays by distinguished writers from a variety of fields They provide engaging analyses of films such as Round Midnight Bird Mo Better Blues Cabin in the Sky and Jammin the Blues the writings of Eudora Welty and Dorothy Baker the careers of the great lindy hoppers of the 1930s and 1940s Mura Dehn s extraordinary documentary on jazz dance the jazz photography of William Claxton painters of the New York School the traditions of jazz autobiography and the art of vocalese The contributors to this volume assess the influence of extramusical sources on our knowledge of jazz and suggest that the living contexts of the music must be considered if a more sophisticated jazz scholarship is ever to evolve Transcending the familiar patterns of jazz history and criticism Representing Jazz looks at how the music actually has been heard and felt at different levels of American culture With its companion anthology Jazz Among the Discourses this volume will enrich and transform the literature of jazz studies Its provocative essays will interest both aficionados and potential jazz fans Contributors Karen Backstein Leland H Chambers Robert P Crease Krin Gabbard Frederick Garber Barry K Grant Mona Hadler Christopher Harlos Michael Jarrett Adam Knee Arthur Knight James Naremore
