Anatomy Of Word Construction Answer Key:

Divine Flesh, Embodied Word Anne-Claire Mulder, 2006 What has Luce Irigaray's statement that women need a God to do with her thoughts on the relation between body and mind or the sensible and the intelligible Using the theological notion incarnation as a hermeneutical key Anne Claire Mulder brings together and illuminates the interrelations between these different themes in Luce Irigaray's work Seesawing between Luce Irigaray's critique of philosophical discourse and her constructive philosophy Mulder elucidates Irigaray's thoughts on the relations between becoming woman and becoming divine She shows that Luce Irigaray's restaging of the relation between the sensible and the intelligible between flesh and Word is key to her reinterpretation of the relation between woman and God In and through her interpretation of Luce Irigaray's thoughts on the flesh she argues that the relation between flesh and Word must be seen as a dialectical one instead of as a dualistic relation This means that incarnation is no longer seen as a one way process of Word becoming flesh but as a continuing process of flesh becoming word and word becoming flesh For all images and thoughts including those of God are produced by the flesh divine in its creativity inexhaustibility in response to the touch of the other And these images thoughts words in turn become embodied by touching and moving the flesh of the subject
