issued and enforced at the highest levels of authority At the heart of Egyptian governance was the role of Ma at which extended beyond ethical conduct to legal proceedings Ma at represented a cosmic balance that rulers were duty bound to uphold The pharaoh as the earthly representative of the gods was seen as the ultimate source of justice His decrees and judgments set legal precedents shaping the administration of law across the kingdom This divine connection made Egyptian law unique as it blended religious principles with practical governance ensuring that justice was not only a human responsibility but also a sacred duty
