Anatomy Of Film 5th Edition:

Anatomy of Film 5th + Pocket Style Manual 4th Bernard F. Dick, Diana Hacker, 2005-03-28 Anatomy of Film Bernard F. Dick, Cheryl E. Ball, Kristin L. Arola, 2005-04-13 Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 Bert Cardullo, 2015-04-01

The essays in this insightful film analysis text show cover twenty one of the best European films made between the coming of World War II and the end of the twentieth century showing what makes each of them outstanding. These essays are clear and readable that is sophisticated and meaty yet not overly technical or jargon heavy. They will make perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general. Written with university students in mind, these essays cover some of the central films treated and central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills. A list of questions for discussion is included to trigger further thinking among film buffs and to help educators prepare for class. The book is aimed at students, teachers, and cinephiles with an interest in European cinema in particular and cinema studies in general, as well as at those educated readers with an interest in the practice of film analysis and criticism. The only competition comes from Stanley Kauffmann's relatively brief Ten Great Films (136 pp, 2012). The current work offers twenty-one illustrated essays. Kauffmann's book contains no images and focuses on Europe. The countries represented are France, Italy, England, Hungary, Belgium, Sweden, Scotland, Denmark, Russia, Spain, Germany, Scotland, and Finland. Twenty-One Landmark European Films 1939-1999 overlaps with Kauffmann's book only in the case of L'avventura, though the two approach this film from vastly different angles. Moreover, the book provides a complete critical apparatus: notes, bibliographies, credits, and filmographies, whereas Kauffmann's has none. This book could be one of the primary texts for courses in film analysis to accompany a work like Timothy Corrigan's A Short Guide to Writing about Film (8th edition, 2011). It would also be a suitable supplementary or secondary text in such courses as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation, Western European Cinema, History of Film or Global Cinema, and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination. Sith, Slayers, Stargates & Cyborgs John R. Perlich, David Whitt, 2008

The beginning of the twenty-first century has already seen its fair share of modern myths with heroes such as Spider-Man, Superman, and Harry Potter. The authors in this volume deconstruct, discuss, engage, and interrogate the mythologies of the new millennium in science fiction, fantasy, and texts. Using literary and rhetorical criticism paired with philosophy, cultural studies, media arts, psychology, and communication studies, they illustrate the function, value, and role of new mythologies and show that the universal appeal of these texts is their mythic power, drawing upon archetypes of the past which resonate with individuals and throughout culture. In this way, they demonstrate how mythology is timeless and eternal. The Films of Robin Williams Johnson Cheu, 2019-05-28
