He believed he was a great father, great employee, and union brother, great lover, and above all, a great bettor who loved to win money betting on sporting events with a local Milwaukee bookkeeper. He was so successful at winning money that the Mob boss who headed the betting operation sent his estranged wife to bait Greenwood into a sexual encounter. Hours later, Greenwood and the Mob boss's wife are taken to a hunting cottage where they are shot and killed. Greenwood's body was covered with a tarp behind the cottage and wasn't found for about two months. An hour after the funeral ended, Greenwood's spirit woke up on his bed with his guardian angel sitting in a chair looking right at him. Tully is escorted to Heaven's front door by the guardian angel. An entrance counselor reviews Tully's life with him and determines his entrance assignment is to meet a number of souls already in Heaven. Tully is taught the importance of change for the better or bettor in order to make it all the way into Heaven.
