An Unsuitable Mother:

An Unsuitable Mother Sheelagh Kelly, 2008-12-22 A memorable saga from one of the best loved writers of the genre Sheelagh Kelly gives us the pain and determination of the people of York during the Second World War Memoirs of an Unfit Mother Anne Robinson, 2017-06-29 Anne Robinson's mother was a cross between Robert Maxwell and Mother Teresa When Anne became a young reporter in Fleet Street her mother a wealthy market trader bought her a mink coat and told her to have a facial once a month But Anne Robinson's early success almost ended in her destruction A doomed marriage was followed by a secret custody battle for her two year old daughter Emma Is it true her husband's barrister demanded in court you once said you'd rather cover the Vietnam War than vacuum the sitting room A shocking funny poignant and honest account of three generations of women Anne's formidable mother Anne and her daughter Emma Memoirs of an Unfit Mother tells of Anne's downfall the shame of the years after the custody battle and her subsequent alcoholism And the triumph of returning to take a second go at life And making it work The Mother's Manual of Children's Diseases Charles West, 1885 Writing Back Through Our Mothers Tegan Zimmerman, 2014 For the first time in the literary tradition the contemporary woman's historical novel post 1970 is surveyed from a transnational feminist perspective Analyzing the maternal the genre's central theme reveals that historical fiction is a transnational feminist means for challenging historical erasures silences normative sexuality political exclusion and divisions of labor Series Contributions to Transnational Feminism Vol 5 A Room of His Own Gloria L. Cronin, 2001-01-01 The world of Saul Bellow is peopled largely by men often intellectuals who manifest Bellow's unique conception of American masculinity In this timely analysis of the Bellow oeuvre from a feminist perspective Gloria Cronin offers a stunning and insightful critique of the Nobel Prizewinning novelist Drawing on her comprehensive knowledge of Western thought and Western philosophical tradition Cronin also incorporates the brilliant insights of French feminist theory on Western male philosophers into her critique Cronin's mastery of these intellectual traditions informs her fruitful examination of Bellow's explicit dialogue rich consideration of his misogyny and the many masculinities he presents Cronin demonstrates how Bellow's almost exclusively male protagonists simultaneously search for and destroy a lost feminine essence that they yearn for and in so doing create their own prisons She also looks at the self irony pervading Bellow the comic dimension of his character's gender struggles and the spiritual sensibility that attempts to reach beyond gendered and other paradigms of selfhood A Room of His Own makes an extraordinary contribution to gender studies of masculinity and its formations Maternity Homes for Unmarried Mothers Maud Morlock, Miss Hilary Campbell, 1946 Labor of Innocents Karin Lorene Zipf, 2005-05-01 On an autumn day in 1866 Wiley Ambrose and Hepsey Saunders two former slaves who lived as husband and wife received a knock at their door Three men from a plantation in Brunswick County North Carolina presented court ordered apprenticeship papers authorizing the immediate seizure of the couple's daughters fifteen year old Harriet and thirteen year old Eliza After a brief stay in jail with other children the sisters were sent to work as plantation servants and field hands until age twenty one With that startling example Karin L Zipf begins Labor of Innocents the first comprehensive exploration of forced apprenticeship in North Carolina Zipf refuses to nostalgically view apprenticeship as a benign form of vocational training for children and instead presents irrefutable evidence that the institution existed as a means to control the composition and character of families to provide alternate sources of cheap labor and to ensure a white patriarchal social order Codified by law involuntary apprenticeship allowed courts not only to define who was an unacceptable parent but also to indenture their children Disproportionately affected were the poor Zipf details the continual fluidity of the institution from its colonial origins to its twentieth century demise Over two hundred years the definition of an unfit head of household variously included black men any woman and widowed or unmarried white women depending upon the current social and political agenda of authorities Parents of both races and sexes challenged the laws vigorously and repeatedly to no effect until progressive reforms ended apprenticeship in 1919 with passage of the Child Welfare Act An impressive blend of legal social and labor history Labor of Innocents illuminates past concepts of family and the realities families endured The Mother's Assistant, and Child's Friend, 1846 Office Administration for Organizations Supervising the Health of Mothers, Infants, and Children of Preschool Age Estelle Belle Hunter, Helen Rankin Jeter, Helen Russell Wright, Lydia Jane Roberts, United States.
