

Afrika ans Notes Paper 2 Term 2

Short stories

1. All is fair in love and war (Jan van tonder):
 - the story is about Edwill, Helena and Waldemar, and they are in a love triangle.
 - Edwill and Lita have a plan to get Waldemar and Helena away from each other. En die plan kom by Edwill op toe die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle die storie van Helena van Troje vertel.
 - "In die klas het die Afrikaanse onderwyser hulle eendag die storie van Helena van Troje vertel en van die houtperd waarin soldate weggesteek is sodat hulle die stad onopgemerk kon binnegaan. En daar en dan het Edwill 'n plan gekry: hy sou met Waldemar vriende maak."

Karakters:

- ↘ Helena - Herinner ons aan klassieke karakter Helena van Troje
- ↘ Edwill - Verlief om Helena. Beraam plan om haar hart te wen.
- ↘ Waldemar - aantreklik, goeie rugbyspeler, nie goed met kommunikeer/woorde nie, Helena se kêrel
- ↘ Lita - Edwill se suster. Help Edwill om Helena se hart te wen.

Die aanvangsoomblik is wanneer Edwill besef dat hy verlief is op Helena en dit met sy sussie deel. Ons sien dat die spanning begin bou wanneer Lita beweer dat hulle die Achilleshiel in die verhouding opgespoor het.

insident waar Edwill aanbied om Helena se boeties besig te hou sodat sy meer tyd saam met Waldemar kan deurbring en Helena

Analysis Of Afrikaans Short Story Benedicta:

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies South African Summary, 1962

Children's Literature Abstracts, 1993 The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry

Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs, 2019-03-11 In Media in Postapartheid South Africa author Sean Jacobs turns to media politics and the consumption of media as a way to understand recent political developments in South Africa and their relations with the African continent and the world Jacobs looks at how mass media define the physical and human geography of the society and what it means for comprehending changing notions of citizenship in postapartheid South Africa Jacobs claims that the media have unprecedented control over the distribution of public goods rights claims and South Africa's integration into the global political economy in ways that were impossible under the state controlled media that dominated the apartheid years Jacobs takes a probing look at television commercials and the representation of South Africans reality television shows and South African continental expansion soap operas and postapartheid identity politics and the internet as a space for reassertions and reconfigurations of identity As South Africa becomes more integrated into the global economy Jacobs argues that local media have more weight in shaping how consumers view these products in unexpected and consequential ways University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). Afropolitanism and the Novel Ashleigh Harris, 2019-08-09 The place of the novel as a literary form in Africa is contested Its colonial origins and its unaffordability for most Africans make it a bad fit for the continent yet it was also central to the creation of most postcolonial African national literary canons These bipolar traditions remain unresolved in recent debates about Afropolitanism and the novel in Africa today This book extends this debate arguing that Africa's de-realization in global representation and the global economy is reflected in the African novel becoming dominated by Afropolitan rather than African aesthetics styles and forms Drawing on close readings of a variety of major African novels of the 2000s the volume traces the tensions between the novel's complicity with and resistance to such de-realization The book argues that current trends and experiments in African non-realist genres such as science fiction magical and animist realism Afro-futurism and speculative environmentalism are the result of a preoccupation with such de-realization The volume is a significant exploration into literary form and its social philosophical political and economic underpinnings It will be a must-read for scholars students and researchers of African literature politics philosophy and culture studies Limits to Liberation After Apartheid Steven L. Robins, 2005 The post-apartheid public sphere in South Africa has been characterised by race tensions and distrust Socio-economic inequalities and structural unemployment are contributing to widespread crises In addressing the conceptual and empirical questions relating to the transition to democracy the contributors to this volume take the questions of culture and identity seriously drawing attention to the creative agency of citizens of the new South Africa They raise important questions concerning the limits of citizenship and procedural democracy Steven L Robins is Professor of Social Anthropology in the University of Stellenbosch North America Ohio U Press BR Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1964 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1960 Drum, 2009 Writers DK, 2018-09-06 Explore the fascinating lives and loves of the greatest novelists poets and playwrights From William Shakespeare and Jane Austen to Gabriel Garcia Marquez and Toni Morrison Writers explores more than 100 biographies of the world's greatest writers Each featured novelist playwright or poet is introduced by a stunning portrait followed by photography and illustrations of locations and artefacts important in their lives along with pages from original manuscripts first editions and their correspondence Trace the friendships loves and rivalries that inspired each individual and affected their writing revealing insights into the larger-than-life characters plots and evocative settings that they created You will also uncover details each writer's most famous pieces and understand the times and cultures they lived in see how the world influenced them and how their works influenced the world Writers introduces key ideas themes and literary techniques of each figure revealing the imaginations and personalities behind some of the world's greatest novels short stories poems and plays A diverse variety of authors are covered from the Middle Ages to present day providing a compelling glimpse into the lives of the people behind the page Encyclopedia of British Humorists Steven H.
