Monstrous Beings and Media Cultures examines the monsters and sinister creatures that spawn from folk horror Gothic fiction and from various sectors of media cultures The collection illuminates how folk monsters form across different art and media traditions and interrogates the 21C revitalization of folk as both a cultural formation and aesthetic mode The essays explore how combinations of vernacular and institutional creative processes shape the folkloric and or folkloresque attributes of monstrous beings their popularity and the contexts in which they are received While it focuses on 21C permutations of folk monstrosity the collection is transhistorical in approach featuring chapters that focus on contemporary folk monsters historical antecedents and the pre C21st art and media traditions that shaped enduring monstrous beings The collection also illuminates how folk monsters and folk horror travel across cultures media and time periods and how iconic monsters are tethered to yet repeatedly become unanchored from material and regional contexts Media Review Digest C. Edward Wall,2006 Ethics in Health Care Silvia Angelina Pera,Susara Van Tonder,2005 Dealing primarily with nursing in South Africa and the particular challenges that the country s nurses encounter this book looks at the ethical questions confronting nurses as well as the moral philosophy behind those considerations Ubuntu the African notion that everyone in a community is responsible for the welfare of its members plays a large part in the moral deliberations of the book as do problems particular to South Africa This second edition is updated with new case studies on the AIDS pandemic as well as new ethical questions stemming from the legalization of abortion in South Africa and the rise in the power of health worker unions

Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2011-05 Perturbatory Narration in Film Sabine Schlickers,Vera Toro,2017-11-07 Perturbatory narration is a heuristic concept applicable both quantitatively and qualitatively to a specific type of complex narratives for which narratology has not yet found an appropriate classification This new term refers to complex narrative strategies that produce intentionally disturbing effects such as surprise confusion doubt or disappointment effects that interrupt or suspend immersion in the aesthetic reception process The initial task however is to indicate what narrative conventions are in fact questioned transgressed or given new life by perturbatory narration The key to our modeling lies in its combination of individual procedures of narrative strategies hitherto regarded as unrelated Their interplay has not yet attracted scholarly attention The essays in this volume present a wide range of contemporary films from Canada the USA Mexico Argentina Spain France and Germany The perturbatory narration concept enables to typify and systematize moments of disruption in fictional texts combining narrative processes of deception paradox and or empuzzlement and to analyse these perturbing narrative strategies in very different filmic texts

Reel Power Matthew Alford, 2010-08-06 Hollywood is often characterised as a stronghold of left liberal ideals In Reel Power Matthew Alford shows that it is in fact deeply complicit in serving the interests of the most regressive US corporate and political forces Films like Transformers Terminator Salvation and Black Hawk Down are constructed with Defence Department assistance as explicit cheerleaders for the US military but Matthew Alford also emphasises how so called radical films like Three Kings Hotel Rwanda and Avatar present watered down alternative visions of American politics that serve a similar function Reel Power is the first book to examine the internal workings of contemporary Hollywood as a politicised industry as well as scores of films across all genres No matter what the progressive impulses of some celebrities and artists Alford shows how they are part of a system that is hard wired to encourage American global supremacy and frequently the use of state violence

The DVD-laser Disc Newsletter, 2004 Aspetti cognitivi della ricostruzione degli incidenti stradali Roberto Breda, Lorenzo Fiorina, Alessandro Antonietti, 2014-06-05 Relativism, Alternate History, and the Forgetful Reader Derek Thiess, 2014-11-25 The writer of alternate history asks what if What if one historical event were different what would the world look like today In a similar way the postmodern philosopher of history suggests that history is literature or that if we read certain historical details differently we would get a distinctly different interpretation of past events While the science fiction alternate history means to illuminate the past to increase our understanding of past events however the postmodern approach to history typically suggests that such understanding is impossible To the postmodern philosopher history is like literature in that it does not offer the reader access to the past but only an interesting story Building on criticism that suggests personal psychological reasons for this obscuring the past and using a literary theory of readership this book challenges the postmodern approach to history It channels the speculative power of science fiction to read the works of postmodern philosophy of history as alternate histories themselves and to map the limits and pathology of their forgetful reading of the past
