The Predatory Paradox Amy Koerber, Jesse C. Starkey, Karin Ardon-Dryer, R. Glenn Cummins, Lyombe Eko, Kerk F. Kee, 2023-10-24 In today's publish or perish academic setting the institutional prizing of quantity over quality has given rise to and perpetuated the dilemma of predatory publishing Upon a close examination however the definition of predatory itself becomes slippery evading neat boxes or lists which might seek to easily define and guard against it This volume serves to foreground a nuanced representation of this multifaceted issue In such a rapidly evolving landscape this book becomes a field guide to its historical political and economic aspects presenting thoughtful interviews legal analysis and original research Case studies from both European American and non European American stakeholders emphasize the worldwide nature of the challenge faced by researchers of all levels This coauthored book is structured into both textual and supplemental materials Key takeaways discussion questions and complete classroom activities accompanying each chapter provide opportunities for engagement and real world applications of these concepts Crucially relevant to early career researchers and the senior faculty library scholars and administrators who mentor and support them The Predatory Paradox Ethics Politics and Practices in Contemporary Scholarly Publishing offers practical recommendations for navigating the complex and often contradictory advice currently available University instructors and teaching faculty will also find the reading essential in order to properly prepare both graduate and undergraduate students for the potential pitfalls endemic to scholarly publishing

The Fabric of Peace in Africa Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises the violence the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting It is also necessary to address the long term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities societies and states that have been torn apart To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities schools universities religious institutions media commercial enterprises legal institutions civil society groups youth women and migrants These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity fairness shared norms and cohesion between state and society all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa This volume brings together leading experts from Africa Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict What are the threats to cohesion and resilience And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors The Fabric of Peace in Africa Looking beyond the State opens new doors of understanding for students scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on
