100 Wild Little Weird Tales:

100 Wild Little Weird Tales Stefan R. Dziemianowicz, Robert E. Weinberg, Martin Harry Greenberg, 1994 Weird Tales the acknowledged leader of pulp magazine fantasy from 1923 to 1954 provided many of the genre's wildest and wooliest stories. Here are 100 of the magazine's greatest written by the best and brightest writers of macabre tales of horror. Every story is guaranteed to bewilder, disturb and excite. Witness H.P. Lovecraft's tales of extradimensional terror, discover the worlds of Clark Ashton Smith which in Lovecraft's words are a universe of remote and paralyzing fright, then explore Henry S. Whitehead's quest into the spectral mysteries of the West Indies. The distinguished contributors to this collection challenged traditional notions of fiction by writing tales in ways previously unexplored. Seabury Quinn's blend of the detective story and terror in his accounts of occult investigator Jules de Grandin, E. Hoffman Price's retelling of Eastern myths and legends and Manly Wade Wellman's tales of Southern folklore are all groundbreaking examples of invention through experimentation. Although Weird Tales is renowned primarily for its short stories and novellas, the magazine also introduced its readers to sudden or shorter than short fiction. For example, consider the contrast between Florence Crow's vampire in traditional guise in The Nightmare Road and that of Richard F. Seary's in The Sealed Casket. Also discover how Clark Ashton Smith in The Last Incantation and H.P. Lovecraft in The Doom That Came to Sarnath intensified the psychological setting of their stories by cultivating a stylized prose form appropriate for their arcane horrors. 100 Wild Little Weird Tales is a superb selection of Weird Tales' best and most bizarre. It proves that good things or in the case of weird fiction, bad things come in small packages.

Weird Tales: 100 Years of Weird Jonathan Maberry, various authors, 2023-10-10 Celebrating the 100th anniversary of the first issues of Weird Tales Magazine, 100 Years of Weird is a masterful compendium of new and classic stories, flash fiction, essays and poems from the giants of speculative fiction including R.L. Stine, Laurell K. Hamilton, Ray Bradbury, H.P. Lovecraft, Tennessee Williams and Isaac Asimov. Marking a century of uniquely peculiar storytelling, each part of this anthology features a different genre from Cosmic Horror to Sword and Sorcery, Space Opera to the Truly Weird things too strange to publish elsewhere and the magazine's raison d'être. Landmark stories such as The Call of Cthulhu, Worms of the Earth and Legal Rites stand beside original stories and insightful essays from today's masters of speculative fiction. This visually stunning hardcover edition is a collector's dream, illustrated throughout with classic full color and black and white art from past issues of Weird Tales Magazine.

World Wrecker Richard W. Gombert, 2009-10-01 Known as the World Wrecker for his galaxy smashing space operas, Edmond Hamilton wrote intelligent, exciting and readable science fiction for over 40 years. This first major bibliography of his work covers his enormous output and numerous reprint editions. All students of Hamilton and all major libraries will want a copy of this bibliographical labor of love.

Knowing Fear Jason Colavito, 2007-11-26 Tracing the development of horror entertainment since the late 18th century, this study argues that scientific discovery, technological progress and knowledge in general have played an unparalleled role in influencing the evolution of horror Throughout its many subgenres biological horror cosmic horror and others and formats film literature comics horror records humanity's uneasy relationship with its own ability to reason understand and learn The text first outlines a loose framework defining several distinct periods in horror development then explores each period sequentially by looking at the scientific and cultural background of the period its expression in horror literature and its expression in horror visual and performing arts
