

10 DAY DETOX DIET GUIDE

Do you need a sugar detox? Do you have FLC ("Feel Like Crap") Syndrome? Most people don't connect the dots between what they're eating and how they feel. So many of us walk around with FLC Syndrome and don't even know it until we start feeling good.

The good news is that for most people, this can be fixed in as little as 10 days. The biggest cause of FLC is not sloth, gluttony or lack of willpower; but a true biological addiction to sugar, refined carbs and processed foods.

New science proves that sugar (and refined carbs) is addictive. In fact, sugar is now thought to be even more addictive than cocaine.

8 SIGNS YOU MAY BE ADDICTED TO THE SWEET STUFF:

- You have belly fat.
- You crave sugar and carbs.
- You have trouble losing weight on a low-fat diet.
- You have high blood sugar or high blood pressure.
- You eat even if you're not hungry.
- You're sluggish from overeating.
- You have embarrassed feelings about eating, both in secret, or in public.
- You feel agitated, can't sleep or suffer withdrawal symptoms if you don't eat junk food.

IT'S NOT YOUR FAULT YOU'RE FAT.

Food addiction is very real. It's not a metaphor.

It's not a psychological problem or a moral failing, or lack of willpower. It's a biological fact. When you eat sugar or flour products, they spike the activity of an area of our brain called the nucleus accumbens, which is ground zero for addiction. When that happens, we have very little control over our behavior. Even though people know it hurts them, they still do it. The solution is a medical sugar and refined carb detox, which is why we created The Blood Sugar Solution 10-Day Detox Diet.

The best way to know if the foods you're eating are making you feel like crap is to do a quick-start reboot — like turning your body back to its original settings. All you have to do is eat whole, fresh foods like you would have eaten one hundred years ago: fresh vegetables, clean proteins, nuts, seeds, good fats, and the occasional fruit. It also means it's time to lose that addiction to sugar and flour; you should also refrain from caffeine, alcohol, gluten, and dairy for 10 days.
