14 Grade Geography Papers Johannesburg:

Johannesburg Keith Beavon, 2022-08-01 Until now there has been no single text that brings together the material that reveals the unfolding geography of Johannesburg South Africa This book describes the history of the city from its days as a mining camp to its position of premier metropolis in Africa The present geography of Johannesburg and the problems and dysfunctions that it has exhibited at various stages in its history since 1886 cannot be understood without a firm grasp of what has evolved over the past 120 years New Directions in South African Tourism Geographies Jayne M.

Rogerson, Gustav Visser, 2019-09-26 This book provides an overview of innovative and new directions being chartered in South African tourism geographies Within the context of global change the volume explores different facets and different geographies of tourism Key themes under scrutiny include the sharing economy the changing accommodation service sector touring poverty tourism and innovation tourism and climate change threats to sustainability inclusive tourism and a number of studies which challenge the present mindedness of much tourism geographical scholarship The 18 chapters range across urban and rural landscapes in South Africa with sectoral studies which include adventure tourism coastal tourism cruise tourism nature based tourism sports tourism and wine tourism Finally the volume raises a number of policy and planning issues in the global South in particular relating to sustainability local economic development and poverty reduction Outlining the impact of tourism expansion in South Africa and suggesting future research directions this stimulating book is a valuable resource for geographers as well as researchers and students in the field of tourism studies The Political Economy of Modern South Africa Alf Stadler, 2022-10-05 Originally published in 1987 this book argues that South African politics reflect the changing ways in which the region has been incorporated into the world economy It traces the effects of a process of industrialisation under the dominance of mining on the other sectors of the economy and on the evolution of the class structure It shows how a coercive labour system influenced the definition of political and social rights in racial terms and profoundly influenced the development of authoritarian controls over blacks in the urban and rural areas from the 1920s onwards The book includes an essay on the different strands in the reform movement and speculates about the social and political forces which underlined the political changes which began to take place during the mid 1970s The Politics of War Memory and Commemoration T.G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, 2013-01-11 International in scope presents a range of case studies from a diverse range of national contexts War memory and commemoration has had an increasingly high profile in public and academic debates in recent years The ANC's Early Years Peter Limb, 2024-12-02 The African National Congress ANC is the oldest and most durable of African nationalist movements not only in South Africa but also across the continent Since 1994 it has governed the country as leader of the Tripartite Alliance with the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and South African Communist Party SACP The early decades of the twentieth century saw the establishment survival and growth of ANC and black labour organisations This book focuses on the formative period of engagement of these political and socioeconomic forces before permanent alliances emerged It analyses the ANC's attitudes and relationships with the nascent formations of the black working class with particular attention to the most conscious and active workers The subject matter in this book also discusses migrant rural domestic and women workers not always then clearly defined as part of a formal working class Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges South Africa, Past, Present and Future Tony Binns, Alan Lester, Etienne Nel, 2014-09-25 This is the first book to combine a discussion of post apartheid development initiatives with an extended historical analysis of South Africa's dynamic race class gender and ethnic identities Bringing together the research of an historical geographer and two development geographers the book enables us to locate the post apartheid transition in a broad historical and spatial perspective Within this perspective the limitations as well as the achievements of South Africa's current transformation are highlighted African Urban Quarterly, 1989

Commemorating War Timothy G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, War memory and commemoration have had increasingly high profiles in public and academic debates in recent years This volume examines some of the social changes that have led to this development among them the passing of the two world wars from survivor into cultural memory Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration the book illuminates the struggle to install particular memories at the center of a cultural world and offers an extensive argument about how the politics of commemoration practices should be understood Commemorating War analyzes a range of forms of remembrance from public commemorations orchestrated by nation states to personal testimonies of war survivors and from cultural memories of war represented in films plays and novels to investigations of wartime atrocities in courts of human rights It presents a wide range of international case studies encompassing lesser known national histories and wars beyond the well trodden terrain of Vietnam and the two world wars in Europe Emerging from this book is an important critique of both state centered approaches to war memory and those that regard commemoration primarily as a human response to loss and grief Offering a wealth of empirical research material this book will be important for cultural and oral historians sociologists researchers in international relations and human rights and anybody with an interest in the cultural construction of memory in contemporary society Timothy G Ashplant is a member of the Research Center for Literature and Cultural History at Liverpool John Moores University He has published on psychoanalysis and history and the life writings of working class men and women in Britain Graham Dawson teaches cultural and historical studies at the University of Brighton His publications include Soldier Heroes British Adventure Empire and the Imagining of Masculinities and Trauma and Life Stories with Kim Lacy Rogers and Selma Leydesdorff Michael Roper works as a social and cultural historian in the Department of Sociology at the University of Essex His previous publications include Manful Assertions Masculinities in Britain since 1800 with John

Tosh and Masculinity and the British Organization Man since 1945 South Africa's water governance hydraulic mission (1912-2008) in a WEF-Nexus context Johann W.N. Tempelhoff, 2018-12-01 Geologists physicists and ecologists currently promote the idea of a post Holocene epoch the Anthropocene As a result of constant innovation and modernisation in the fields of engineering natural science management studies and environmental studies there has been a growing awareness of the intrinsic interaction between humankind and the environment Humankind has become part of the environmental dynamics to the extent that they are literally able to change ecosystems Nowhere is the impact more evident than in the anthropogenic engagement with the hydrosphere from the smallest pool of water to the earth's atmosphere Comprehensive infrastructure development in water and sanitation the growing trend to seek additional resources in the form of groundwater desalinated seawater and recycled wastewater as well as special attention being given to capturing and preserving rainwater bear evidence of a timely response to climate change population growth and rapid development in many water stressed regions of the world The purpose of the book is to provide a historical overview of the manner in which South Africa's water resources have been governed from a time when the Union of South Africa was formed in 1910 up to 2008 a time of a growing global awareness of the potential impact that climate change may have on water resources in a key region of southern Africa notable for increasing levels of aridity and more erratic rainfall patterns This focus on the history of water affairs in South Africa makes it possible for scholars to comprehend the contemporary transitions made in the country's water governance system since the establishment in 2014 of the Department of Water and Sanitation The focus is on the Water Energy Food nexus a strategy which holistically contemplates the governance and use of water from the perspective of the interconnection between water energy and food as resources Palmers' Index to the Times Newspaper, 1900

Department of State United States. Dept. of State,1937 The Creation of Tribalism in Southern Africa Leroy Vail,1991-01-07 Despite a quarter century of nation building most African states are still driven by ethnic particularism commonly known as tribalism The stubborn persistence of tribal ideologies despite the profound changes associated with modernization has puzzled scholars and African leaders alike The bloody hostilities between the tribally oriented Zulu Inkhata movement and supporters of the African National Congress are but the most recent example of tribalism s tenacity The studies in this volume offer a new historical model for the growth and endurance of such ideologies in southern Africa

Living Under Apartheid David M. Smith,2023-07-28 Originally published in 1982 this book covers the unique spatial structure of society which was South Africa under apartheid It brings together a cohesive set of research based contributions to the understanding of this system which was without contemporary parallels The book considers issues such as industrial location and migrant labour at a national scale The case studies which are fully illustrated deal with problems associated with work and housing for blacks set in the 3 major metropolitan areas of Cape Town the Witwatersrand and Durban Of particular importance is the emphasis given to so called spontaneous or squatter settlement and to informal sector work for blacks in the emerging apartheid city something which links directly with central issues of development studies Writing Women and Space Alison Blunt,Gillian Rose,1994-08-19 Drawing lessons from the complex and often contradictory position of white women writing in the colonial period This unique book explores how feminism and poststructuralism can bring new types of understanding to the production of geographical knowledge Through a series of colonial and postcolonial case studies essays address the ways in which white women have written and mapped different geographies in both the late nineteenth century and today illustrating the diverse objects landscapes spaces views the variety of media letters travel writing paintings sculpture cartographic maps political discourse and the different understandings and representations of people and place

Making a Life Hannah J Dawson,2025-05-01 Making a Life explores the dynamic everyday life making strategies of young men in Zandspruit a sprawling informal settlement on the outskirts of Johannesburg In many ways Zandspruit typifies the precariousness of life within South Africa where two thirds of young people lack waged employment However rather than seeing Zandspruit as dumping ground Hannah Dawson calls for an integrated understanding of the complex linkages between people's lives and livelihoods and the multifaceted socio political landscape of urban settlements Based on 14 months of ethnographic research Dawson investigates how social belonging identity and economic realities intertwine in places such as Zandspruit This approach not only challenges conventional approaches to studying work it also questions the increasingly prevalent perspective that romanticises the adaptive survival strategies of the urban poor By exploring the intricate connections between those with and without wages the author shows how young men manage complex social political and economic conditions Making a Life offers insights into issues such as urban work citizenship under employment and inequality in South Africa At the same time it contributes to a global understanding of how young people men especially manage economic uncertainty

Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A. Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2016-10-15 Straddling disciplines and continents Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South Working at the intersection of cultural studies critical development studies and feminist theory the book's contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women culture and development applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment technology and the cultural politics of representation This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development
