14 Isizulu November Grade 10 Paper :

Zulu Warriors John Laband, 2014-05-27 The Anglo Zulu War the most famous of Britain's late nineteenth century campaigns of colonial conquest was not fought in isolation Along with the two Anglo Pedi wars the Ninth Cape Frontier War and the Northern Border War it was one in a brutal series of interconnected and overlapping wars which the British waged between 1877-1879 to crush and disarm the remaining independent black states of South Africa Fusing the widely differing African and European perspectives on events the author probes the fateful decisions taken by statesmen and military commanders analyses military operations and their destructive impact on combatants and civilians alike and explores why so many Africans chose to fight as auxiliaries and levies alongside the British instead of against them Jacket The People's Zion Joel Cabrita, 2018-06-11 Joel Cabrita tells the story of Zionism which began in a utopian community near Chicago in 1900 Its faith healing spiritualism uplifting pan racialism and missionary zeal resonated with marginalized urban working class whites and blacks in both the United States and Southern Africa Today Zionism is Southern Africa's largest religious movement The People's Paper Peter Limb, 2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mqgqweth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People's Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People's Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented Militant Migrants Henry Dee, 2025-11-11 Born in colonial Malawi Clements Kadalie dramatically rose to global prominence as general secretary of the Industrial and Commercial Workers Union of Africa ICU during the 1920s A famed orator journalist and trade union organiser Kadalie electrified huge meetings with his call for economic freedom and all in mass organisation eclipsing nationalist contemporaries and unionising anywhere between 100 000 and 250 000 workers throughout South Africa Namibia Lesotho and Zimbabwe A global labour history of Southern Africa from the perspective of the ICU's immigrant leadership Militant Migrants rehabilitates the significance of the early Malawian diaspora the global importance of Kadalie's ideas the rationale behind the ICU's transnational organising and the many awkward difficulties that Kadalie faced in his personal life Although the ICU dramatically collapsed during the early 1930s Kadalie's fall from grace encapsulates a broader turning point in Southern African history offering unique insights into ideas of gender nation and family that he and other immigrants challenged Leaving a complicated legacy of unprecedented successes and inescapable failures Kadalie's life remains a compelling and necessary tale of audacity solidarity and militant mass struggle not least of all because of the profound challenges that he faced

The Ambiguity of English as a Lingua Franca Stephanie Rudwick, 2021-08-29 Grounded in ethnography this monograph explores the ambiguity of English as a lingua franca by focusing on identity politics of language and race in contemporary South Africa The book adopts a multidisciplinary approach which highlights how ways of speaking English constructs identities in a multilingual context Focusing primarily on isiZulu and Afrikaans speakers it raises critical questions around power and ideology The study draws from literature on English as a lingua franca raciolinguistics and the cultural politics of English and dialogues between these fields It challenges long held concepts underpinning existing research from the global North by highlighting how they do not transfer and apply to identity politics of language in South Africa It sketches out how these struggles for belonging are reflected in marginalisation and empowerment and a vast range of local global and glocal identity trajectories Ultimately it offers a first lens through which global scholarship on English as a lingua franca can be decolonised in terms of disciplinary limitations geopolitical orientations and a focus on the politics of race that characterize the use of English as a lingua franca all over the world This book will be of interest to students and researchers in linguistic anthropology sociolinguistics World Englishes ELF and African studies
