Johnson,Bonnie Johnson,2006 High Stakes is a critical ethnography of an underfunded public elementary school in this era of accountability and high stakes testing The book was written during the year the authors served as third and fourth grade teachers and it juxtaposes the experiences of mostly minority children of poverty and their teachers with an examination of high stakes testing policies and the loss of a comprehensive education to political dictates A Chance to Make History Wendy Kopp,2011-01-25 Since 1990 Teach For America has been building a movement to end educational inequity in America Now its founder Wendy Kopp shares the lessons learned from the experiences of more than 25 000 teachers and alumni who have taught and led schools in low income communities during those years A Chance to Make History cuts through the noise of today s debates to describe precisely what it will take to provide transformational education education that changes the academic and life trajectories predicted by children s socioeconomic backgrounds Sharing her experiences in some of the country s most underserved communities Kopp introduces leaders at the classroom school and system levels who driven by passionate belief in their students potential have set out to accomplish what most think impossible Their inspiring stories show how we can provide children facing all the challenges of poverty with an excellent education and that doing so involves the same ingredients that account for success in any endeavor visionary leadership that sets ambitious goals and puts forth the energy and discipline to reach them Kopp s experiences and insights also shine light on why we have not made more progress against educational inequity how and why the intense but misguided quest for easy answers actually distracts from the hard work of expanding on the growing pockets of success in low income communities and on what we need to do now to increase the pace of change America s failure to educate millions of children to fulfill their potential is a crisis that strikes at our fundamental ideals and health as a nation A Chance to Make History offers tangible evidence that we can change direction and provide all children the opportunity to attain an excellent education Louisiana Register ,2000 The Times Index ,2008 Indexes the Times and its supplements La Voz ,2001 F & S Index United States Annual ,1994 LA Record ,2002
