Shad Morris, James Oldroyd

14 November Zimsec Examination Paper 2economics:

Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo, Kirk Helliker, 2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe. It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe's regime. The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures. This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa's Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations. While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education. Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa's Second Republic. The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes.

The Political Economy of Xenophobia in Africa
Adeoye O. Akinola, 2017-11-13 This book analyzes the phenomenon of xenophobia across African countries With its roots in colonialism which coercively created modern states through border delineation and the artificial merging and dividing of communities xenophobia continues to be a barrier to post colonial sustainable peace and security and socio economic and political development in Africa This volume critically assesses how xenophobia has impacted the three elements of political economy state economy and society Beginning with historical and theoretical analysis to put xenophobia in context the book moves on to country specific case studies discussing the nature of xenophobia in Nigeria South Africa Zambia Ghana and

Zimbabwe The chapters furthermore explore both violent and non violent manifestations of xenophobia and analyze how state responses to xenophobia affects African states economies and societies especially in those cases where xenophobia has widespread institutional support Providing a theoretical understanding of xenophobia and proffering sustainable solutions to the proliferation of xenophobia in the continent this book is of use to researchers and students interested in political science African politics peace studies security and development economics as well as policy makers working to eradicate xenophobia in Africa

Zimbabwe's Military: Examining its Veto Power in the Transition to Democracy, 2008-2013 Rupiya, Martin R.,2013-10-14 Political transition and democratisation challenges have been noted in African countries including Angola Burkina Faso Kenya Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo resulting in the African Union AU intervening on behalf of citizens using tried and tested mechanisms of imposing a power sharing agreement to preside over a transitional period during which there are key changes to the constitution and the political conduct of the incumbency and partisan institutions are weaned from seeking to perpetuate the status quo This book focuses on Zimbabwe s military and its perceived veto power in the transition to democratisation from 2008 until 2013 The objective was to analyse monitor and comment on the unique democratic transformational challenges faced by Zimbabwe s Government of National Unity One of the book s key findings is that every time partisan forces carry out an operation in the name of a political party there is a direct correlation in which the same loses its national character This is the context of the challenge facing Zimbabwean forces when used for partisan gain and why the Southern African Development Community SADC in its last communique in Maputo on 15 June 2013 sought to compel a written undertaking from the generals that they would desist from playing a direct role in the politics of the country The AU had earlier expressed its deep regret when faced with the results of serious human rights abuses that were committed with impunity

The Service Sector and Economic Development in Africa Evelyn F. Wamboye,Peter Nyaronga,2018-09-04 The service sector accounts for a huge proportion of global employment and is the biggest driver of gross domestic product in developing nations Yet there has been little research uncovering its scope potential and implications on sustained and inclusive economic growth This is especially true for Africa which has seen a strong growth trajectory in recent years This book presents a new frontier of research offering insightful perspectives on the 21st century realities of the service sector and its effect on economic development in Africa The analysis presented here will be of relevance to academics and policymakers with an interest in Africa s role in the global economy

Medicus ,1995 Do 'Zimbabweans' Exist? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2009 This book examines the triumphs and tribulations of the Zimbabwean national project providing a radical and critical analysis of the fossilisation of Zimbabwean nationalism against the wider context of African nationalism in general The book departs radically from the common praise texts in seriously engaging with the darker aspects of nationalism including its failure to create the nation as people and to install democracy and a culture of human rights The author examines how the various people inhabiting the lands between the Limpopo and Zambezi Rivers entered history and how violence became a central aspect of the national project of organising Zimbabweans into a collectivity in pursuit of a political end Zimbabwe Research Index ,1980 Register of current research in Zimbabwe
