Mobile Payments, Consumer Policy, and the Law Nwanneka Ezechukwu, 2023-03-17 Mobile technology offers an innovative and cost effective channel for delivering a range of financial services including mobile payments In some jurisdictions mobile payments simply provide a convenient option for facilitating payment transactions In other jurisdictions mobile payments are viewed as potentially transformative because they present an opportunity to expand access to financial services However as with other innovations mobile payments raise consumer protection concerns and require robust regulatory mechanisms to address such concerns Against this backdrop the book adopts a typology of consumer policy tools which can be used to address the identified consumer concerns This typology guides the enquiry into the existing consumer protection frameworks applying to mobile payments in selected jurisdictions Canada Kenya and the United Kingdom The main objective of this endeavour is to identify best practices that national authorities seeking to leverage mobile payments and similar innovations can emulate This book will be of interest to policymakers regulators industry stakeholders students and scholars interested in the regulation of innovative financial services particularly from a consumer protection perspective

Analysis of Sensory Properties in Foods Edgar Chambers IV, 2019-08-23 The sensory properties of foods are the most important reason people eat the foods they eat What those properties are and how we best measure those properties are critical to understanding food and eating behavior Appearance flavor texture and even the sounds of food can impart a desire to eat or cause us to dismiss the food as unappetizing stale or even inappropriate from a cultural standpoint This Special Issue focuses on how sensory properties are measured the specific sensory properties of various foods and consumer behavior related to which properties might be most important in certain situations and how consumers use sensory attributes to make decisions about what they will eat This Special Issue contains both research papers and review articles SERI-RR ,1980 Consumption, Culture and Consumer Life-choices in Australia Paul Henry,2006 Tourism Management C. Ryan,S. Page,2012-08-21 One of the leading texts in the field Tourism Management is the ideal introduction to the fundamentals of tourism as you study for a degree diploma or single module in the subject It is written in an engaging style that assumes no prior knowledge of tourism and builds up your understanding as you progress through this wide ranging global review of the principles of managing tourism It traces the evolution and future development of tourism and the challenges facing tourism managers in this fast growing sector of the world economy This book is highly illustrated with diagrams and colour images and contains short case studies of contemporary themes of interest as well as new data and statistics Consumer Culture Theory Russell W. Belk,Linda Price,Lisa Penaloza,2013-12-06 This volume of Research in Consumer Behavior is made up from a selection of papers from the Eight Consumer Culture Theory Conference and represents the latest research on consumption and consumer culture from scholars around the world Management ,1985 Fair Trade and the Citizen-Consumer K. Wheeler,2012-10-23 As sales of fair trade goods explode across the globe Fair Trade and the Citizen Consumer provides a timely analysis of the organizations institutions and grassroots networks behind this growing movement Drawing on examples from the UK Sweden and USA this book moves away from models of individualized consumer choice and instead explores the collective cultures and practices that motivate and sustain fair trade consumer behaviour Although the fair trade citizen consumer has been called to action and publicly represented as an individual voting in the marketplace this book reveals how market interventions are editing the choices available to consumers at the same time as Fairtrade Town consumer networks are flourishing Offering new and critical insights into the fair trade success story this book also contributes to debates about sustainable consumption behaviour and the growth of new forms of political participation and citizenship Antitrust Law Journal ,1986 Consumer Behaviour Leon Schiffman,Aron O'Cass,Angela Paladino,Jamie Carlson,2013-10-15 A trusted resource for Consumer Behaviour theory and practice Consumer Behaviour explores how the examination and application of consumer behaviour is central to the planning development and implementation of effective marketing strategies In a clear and logical fashion the authors explain consumer behaviour theory and practice the use and importance of consumer research and how social and cultural factors influence consumer decision making The sixth edition of this Australian text provides expanded coverage of contemporary topics Light Sensitive Learners Wendy Johnson,2024-04-08 This book explains why Australian governments are doing nothing for marginalised light sensitive learners Government inaction is explored via policymaking theories and contrasted with a case study of active policymaking in a NSW high school which resulted in improved academic results This book exposes inequity and provides a warrant for action A must read for policy scholars who want to detect and understand policy inaction educators who want to support Light Sensitive Learners lighting designers who want to reduce the negative impacts of artificial lighting lawyers who want to understand the original intent and importance of the clause learning differently in the Disability Discrimination Act parents who want to know who's to blame Gift Giving Cele Otnes, Richard Francis Beltramini, 1996 Gift Giving brings together 21 scholars from a variety of disciplines including consumer behavior communications and sociology who are dedicated to the understanding of what motivates gift selection presentation and incorporation of a gift into a person's life The text explores the role of values in gift exchange the influence of ethnic generational and subcultural differences in gift exchange how gifts to the self are manifested and new directions and topics in gift giving In these essays gift giving occasions are probed for the meanings that can be illuminated with respect to this pervasive yet not always positive phenomenon For anyone interested in gift giving behavior this volume should prove both enlightening and provocative
