14 June Zimsec Science Paper 3:

The Zimbabwe Science News, 2002 Multiparty Democracy in Zimbabwe Aaron Rwodzi, 2024-03-26 This book provides a comprehensive account of the tumultuous political landscape of Zimbabwe Delving into historical and contemporary perspectives the author analyses the relationship between the ruling ZANU PF party and the opposition exposing the pervasive influence of foreign powers and their regime change agendas Amidst western imposed economic sanctions the book examines how political opposition has struggled to maintain its footing in the face of ZANU PF s rhetoric on preserving the nation s sovereignty Drawing on the powerful theoretical frameworks of Gramsci s hegemony theory and instrumentalism the book dissects the constraints on multiparty democracy under ZANU PF s rule From the party s manipulation of liberation narratives to the subtle intricacies of Mugabeism a violent and ideological stronghold the author unveils the tactics employed to maintain power The chapters uncover the pivotal role played by the military throughout Zimbabwe s history from the days of the liberation struggle to the shocking events of 2017 when Mugabe s grip on power was diminished by the very force that had propped him up for decades the author reveals how the military s involvement has thwarted opposition players attempts to claim power Boldly challenging the notion that constraints solely rest on ZANU PF this book calls attention to the shortcomings of opposition parties in navigating Zimbabwe s treacherous political landscape Using compelling evidence and unparalleled analysis the book is an essential read for those seeking to understand the intricate web of power manipulation and struggle that has defined Zimbabwe s political journey Resources in Education, 2001 National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe s development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies Quick Bibliography Series, 1976 Restoring the Educational Dream. Rethinking Educational Transformation in Zimbabwe Shizha, Edward, 2013-12-07 The role of education in human well being and social development cannot be overestimated After a number of highly commendable policies on education in the first decade of independence the education system in Zimbabwe has taken a tumble that needs both examining and rectifying This volume analyses the challenges facing the education system in Zimbabwe and explores and scrutinises theoretical and practical possibilities for restoring the educational dream that was initiated at independence in 1980 The book is targeted at academics scholars college and university students policy makers and other stakeholders and advocates a multi pronged approach that must involve all stakeholders if educational retransformation reconstruction and restoration are to be achieved The authors provide a range of recommendations for a project that would restore the educational dream in Zimbabwe

Health Policy in a Globalising World Kelley Lee,Kent Buse,Suzanne Fustukian,2002-08-08 Increasing recognition of the impact that globalisation may be having on public health has led to widespread concern about the risks arising from emerging and re emerging diseases environmental degradation and demographic change This book argues that health policy making is being affected by globalisation and that these effects are in turn contributing to the kind of global health issues being faced today The book explores how the actors context processes and content of health policy are changing as a result of globalisation raising concerns about growing differences in who can influence health policy what priorities are set what interventions are deemed appropriate and ultimately who enjoys good and bad health Bringing together a distinguished international group of contributors this book covers a comprehensive range of topics and geographic regions and will be invaluable for all those interested in health social and public policy and globalisation

Pembelajaran sosial dalam pengelolaan hutan komunitas Eva Wollenberg,David Edmunds,Louise Buck,Jeff Fox,Sonja Brodt,2005-01-01 How can different interest groups engage together in learning processes that enable them to better manage community forests In this volume practitioners from eight countries document their experience with the aim of identifying how to characterize social learning as well as how to improve upon current practice Analysis of current approaches to facilitation and the circumstances or platforms of learning indicate the need for more attention to the different avenues and styles of learning and the potential benefits of using multiple avenues Learning styles and approaches need to be responsive to stakeholders preferences culture and changes in management needs Multiple approaches are likely if the goal is to reach all the necessary parties and to be relevant to changing conditions over time In documenting these experiences the authors link their observations to concepts labels and the theory of social learning to further advance our general understanding of multi stakeholder processes in forest management

National Agricultural Library Catalog National Agricultural Library (U.S.), 1982 Migration and Democracy Abel Escribà-Folch, Joseph Wright, Covadonga Meseguer, 2022-01-11 How remittances money sent by workers back to their home countries support democratic expansion In the growing body of work on democracy little attention has been paid to its links with migration Migration and Democracy focuses on the effects of worker remittances money sent by migrants back to their home countries and how these resources shape political action in the Global South Remittances are not only the largest source of foreign income in most autocratic countries but also in contrast to foreign aid or international investment flow directly to citizens As a result they provide resources that make political opposition possible and they decrease government dependency undermining the patronage strategies underpinning authoritarianism The authors discuss how international migration produces a decentralized flow of income that generally circumvents governments to reach citizens who act as democratizing agents Documenting why dictatorships fall and how this process has changed in the last three decades the authors show that remittances increase the likelihood of protest and reduce electoral support for authoritarian incumbents Combining global macroanalysis with microdata and case studies of Senegal and Cambodia Migration and Democracy demonstrates how remittances and the movement of people from authoritarian nations to higher income countries foster democracy and its expansion African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences Gloria Emeagwali,Edward Shizha,2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology pedagogy physics architecture medicine and metallurgy The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge AIK with an emphasis on the sciences an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents and policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda,2016-11-10 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966 1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower Multi-party Elections in Africa Michael Cowen,Liisa Laakso,2002 Most of the studies in this book are about national elections in Anglophone Africa There are also less well known examples from Sudan Ethiopia and Guinea Bissau The collection also features studies of the local elections in Namibia and of a significant by election in Malawi The multiparty period has been put wherever possible within the historical context of earlier elections in Africa Questions addressed include how did incumbent governing regimes learn to live with multiparty politics Why have some elections been so closely fought and others have suffered from apathy Why has there been relatively open political expression and activity when the elections have increased the political and economic manipulation by incumbent governments Why have the elections of the 1990s been so marked by local and ethnic variations To what extent did this wave of democracy result from pressure from donor countries North America Palgrave Zimbabwe in Transition Timothy Murithi,Aquilina

Mawadza,2011 Zimbabwe s Transition to Democracy in the post independence era has been a very difficult one To date there have been a number of sustained efforts by various local regional and international actors to move Zimbabwe towards democracy as well as attempts to find a lasting solution to the political and economic crises that seriously affected the country s progress from the late 1990s However these attempts have been less successful mainly because Zimbabwe has complex political and economic problems with interlocking national regional and international political and economic dimensions rooted in both historical and contemporary factors and developments To understand the complexities of the challenges to Zimbabwe s transition to democracy as well as prospects for political change and democracy in the country

Zimbabwe in Transition critically examines both the historical and contemporary dynamics shaping political and economic developments in the country taking into account voices from a broad spectrum of Zimbabwean society including civil society faith based communities the diaspora women community leaders the media youth and regional actors such as SADC and the AU Book jacket

Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe Prosper Maguchu, 2019-07-26 This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio economic rights concern at a national level Zimbabwe s widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects It weakened institutions especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests leading to potential human rights violations However Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017 Due to this there seemed to be an opening to work towards reform in relation to the anti corruption architecture Specifically the new era provides an opportunity to review how accountability mechanisms including but not limited to amnesties truth commissions institutional reforms and prosecutions can address corruption as a socio economic rights violation As the new government still tries to address competing priorities many moving parts and various matrixes this volume in the International Criminal Justice Series provides a timely frame for revisiting the debate and developing the strategic thinking regarding transitional justice options in Zimbabwe It will be of great interest to practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the fields of anti corruption socio economic and human rights and transitional justice Prosper Maguchu is Visiting Assistant Professor at the Centre for the Politics of Transnational Law of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands

Patterns of Farmer Tree Growing in Eastern Africa Katherine Warner, 1993 Provides results of a major attempt by OFI and ICRAF to collect organize and synthesize secondary and primary data in Eastern Africa which shed light on the key socio economic factors affecting farmers decisions about the growing of trees
